On to the Finals!

ELECTION AFTERMATH

Steinkamp Is Out as Head Of S.S.F. Unit

Warren A. Steinkamp, chairman of the South San Francisco Planning Commission and a member of that body for five years, was summarily ousted from his job Monday night by the City Council.

His "firing" followed by three weeks his unsuccessful attempt at election to the council, against incumbent Councilmen Andrew Rocca and Patrick Ahern.

Steinkamp, who won 1,615 votes, came within 29 ballots of unseating Rocca, with 1,644. Ahern gathered 2,788 votes.

It was Rocca who moved to oust the commissioner, with Ahern seconding the motion.

Referring to Steinkamp, Rocca said, "His conduct in the last election campaign was not in keeping with the best interests of the city."

Rocca went on to say that Steinkamp had been guilty of "incorrect statements."

He (Steinkamp) claimed that councilmen were guilty of robbing the citizens of one of the last available park sites on the western side of the city.

"Because of this and other erroneous and disparaging remarks which did not serve the best interests of the city, I move that Warren Steinkamp be removed from the planning commission and that the office he held be declared vacant."

The council passed Rocca's motion unanimously.

Steinkamp, who was conduct-

Colma Gets 'D' Street Back Again

Residents of the Colma area who opposed changing the name of D Street to Alec Street can rejoice, for their efforts have been crowned with success and they have their D Street back again.

The County Board of Supervisors have adopted a resolution officially changing the name back to what it had been for more than half a century—D Street.

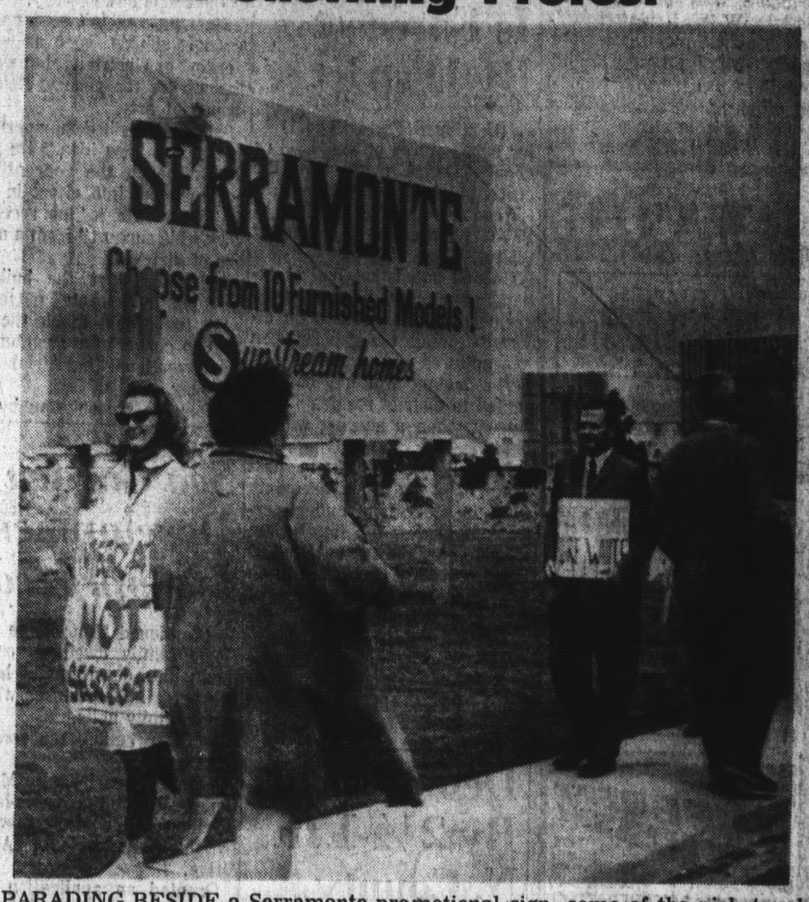
At the same time they denied the request of Alec G. Land, local merchant who got the name changed in the first place, for a rehearing.

The matter was treated routinely when Land, who is president of Alec Shopping Centers, one of which was located on D Street, petitioned for the name change. It was approved by the County Planning Commission and then by the County Board of Supervisors, along with some other street name changes.

Then, however, some landowners in the area got busy and persuaded the county officials to reconsider. The planners refused to change their stand, however, after holding another hearing. It was a different story when it came back to the Board of Supervisors, however, and the members agreed that it had been a mistake to change the name and ordered a resolution drawn for formal action Monday.

In requesting the rehearing last Wednesday, Land said that his shopping center, the Serra Bowl and the 25 or 30 concessionaires operating in his center, had gone to considerable expense to have new stationery printed and take other steps to reflect the change. Now, he complained, the expense will have to be repeated.

A Shuffling Protest



PARADING BESIDE a Serramonte promotional sign, some of the pickets who marched over the weekend at the new Daly City housing tract trod the sidewalk in protest of alleged unfair housing practices by the developers, Standard Building Company. Edward Keating, second from right, who is running for the Democratic nomination for the county's House of Representatives' seat, marched with a sign that read: "The Price Is Right, if You're White." NO CONFRONTATION WITH BUILDER

Civil Rights Pickets Descend On Serramonte—Vow Return

A fog-chilled and wind-buffeted group of about 60 civil rights marchers picketed the huge Serramonte housing development in Daly City over the weekend, but an expected confrontation between the marchers and representatives of the development never materialized.

The group, which was directed and led on both Saturday and Sunday by Albert Waters, chairman of the Ad Hoc Committee for Fair Housing in Serramonte, was protesting alleged discrimination on the part of Standard Building Company, developer of the tract.

The marchers, the majority of whom were whites, were orderly, well-dressed and conformed carefully to a pre-arranged plan set down by Daly City police last week.

The group conifned their marching on Saturday to about 100 yards of sidewalks on both sides of King Drive, the tract's main thoroughfare, which fronts on Skyline Boulevard and forms a boundary line between South San Francisco and Daly City.

Sunday, the marchers picketed some of the model homes in the tract when salesmen tried to open them for display purposes.

Waters said Monday morning, "any time a salesman opened a house we put up a picket line in front of it. As soon as we did it they ran out-

31 CENTS

Tax Boost Is the Forecast in JUHS

A 31-cent boost in the tax rate is estimated in the first draft of the 1966-67 budget for the Jefferson Union High School District, presented to district trustees Monday night.

The budget, which Asst. Supt. Fred O. Goodell said included a number of revenue and cost factors still to be determined, calls for a tax rate of $2.62 per $100 of assessed valuation.

The current rate is $2.31.

Goodell attributed the proposed increase to mandatory or built-in salary increase and other "normal" boosts in the costs of operation.

Eight cents of the 31-cent boost was attributed to an increase in the district's annual state school building fund repayments.

The repayment is based on a formula set by the state.

The preliminary budget calls

Salary Plan Presented To JESD Board

Jefferson Elementary School District trustees, already elbow deep in budget matters, were presented with a 26-page summary of salary proposals and supporting data at their meeting Monday night.

The proposals, submitted by the district's Finance Committee, cover the next three years, or a period until unification becomes effective.

The recommendations, according to the committee, "will encourage the steady growth of our school system with a mini-

Bruno Delay On Rezoning

The San Bruno Planning Commission Monday night held over to May 16 a request from developer Perry Liebman to rezone from R-1 to Planned Development some eight acres between Goodwin, College and Longview Drives.

The delay was designed to give Liebman a chance to determine whether he will keep

5 Finalists Vie for Miss D.C. Crown

Five beautiful Daly City girls have emerged from last Friday night's semi-finals of the 1966 Miss Daly City Contest and will advance into the May 26 finals with high hopes of being named the city's representative in the San Mateo County Miss Dream Girl competition in mid-summer.

Friday night's selections were: Pat DeBernardi, Judy Giles, Pat Hassman, Madelyn Martinelli and Vivian Rieger.

The quintet — a full house of beauty with two blondes and three brunettes — was chosen by five judges representing a variety of Daly City community interests.

The five girls advance now to the final round to be held at the South San Francisco Elks Club for the honor of representing the North County city in the San Mateo County Fair and Floral Fiesta Dream Girl Contest.

The winner of that competition will represent the county in the Maid of California Contest to be held in August.

Selected in a packed Westmoor High School Little Theater, the choosing of the five finalists proved a difficult task for the judges. There was some discussion about naming a sixth girl to the list — an unprecedented eventuality if carried out — but the judges managed to narrow down the field to the traditional five.

Girls were given points in a variety of categories, ranging from talent to beauty.

The contest, which is sponsored by the Daly City Chamber of Commerce, is in its 12th year.

Susann Bernard was last year's winner.

New Approach To Industrial Arts Outlined

A sweeping new approach to the teaching of industrial arts—woodworking, electricity, auto shop and the like—was proposed to trustees of the Jefferson Union High School District Monday night.

Two of the three members of a teacher committee outlined the approach which they said emphasized "problem - solving" rather than the "project-building" aspect of industrial arts.

The members are Norman Sanden, a teacher at Terra Nova High School, and Gerald Maxwell, a teacher at Jefferson High School. The third member of the committee is Leslie Vogt of Westmoor High School.

The teachers displayed a model of an industrial arts center complex that they proposed for future high schools in the district.

The complex would house under a geodesic roof all of a school's industrial arts classes.

All machinery would be stored in one portion of the building and would be mounted on platforms that could be moved by

Demos Lead Republicans By 2½ to 1

Registered Democrats outnumber Republicans by more than two-and-a-half to one in six North County cities, the San Mateo County Election Registration Department reported last week.

There are 47,885 Democrats among the North County's 69,018 registered voters but only 19,287 Republicans.

A total of 1,846 voters registered as non-partisan or members of minority parties, such as Progressive and Independent Prohibition. One San Bruno resident claimed membership in the Communist Party.

There are no registered members of such parties as the Vegetarians and no remaining Whigs, according to registration official James Sweeney.

A total of 236,149 San Mateo County residents are registered to vote in the June elections, Sweeney said. The number is about 5.6 per cent less than the Sea Garden Development Is Approved

The Pacifica Planning Commission Monday night granted a rezoning application to the J. H. Hedrick Company of South San Francisco which will enable the firm to begin construction of its planned Sea Garden housing development.

The new housing tract will be located between the Coast Highway and the Pacific Ocean directly west of Henry Doelger's Fairmont West development.

The commission changed the 16-acre site from residential garden units to a planned development.

Coaches Lose Salary Fight

Coaches in the Jefferson Union High School District lost their suit in Superior Court last week for extra pay for after-school coaching duties. Judge Frank Rose handed down the decision. For details, see Page 6.

(Grand)Mother's Day Warmup

ANY MOTHER or grandmother knows it's not polite to be late for a Mother's Day event. So Mrs. Alberta Hampton of Mountain View is taking no chances for a dinner date Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Patricia English, and her grandchildren, Richard, Robert and Cathy English, all of 241 Juanita Avenue in Pacifica. Here, she takes her motorcycle out for a spin in preparation for the trip to Pacifica Sunday. (Post-Times Photo)

Coast Sewer Charge Plan Killed for at Least a Year

A controversial proposal to levy a sewer rental charge on Pacifica residents won't be considered for at least another year, Pacifica councilmen decided last week.

They voted to remove the proposal from the council's agenda and not to consider it during the 1966-67 fiscal year, which begin July 1.

The proposal would provide for a yearly sewer rental charge of $18 for each single family residence.

Each unit in apartment buildings, duplexes and trailer courts also would be charged $18.

Charges for businesses would vary.

Prior to the council's action last week several residents voiced opposition to the proposal.

The concensus of some of their arguments was that the rental charge, if it was to be levied, should be added to the property tax.

This way, one resident pointed out, the charge could be deducted from income taxes.

In other business, the council asked City Attorney Conrad Reisch and City Manager Karl Baldwin to draw up a proposed agreement for a city subsidy to the El Mar Transit Company, popularly known as the "Little Red Buses."

The council had received a letter from the Chamber of

Daly City Girl Killed Chasing Ball

An 11-year-old Daly City girl was dead last Friday because she chased a ball into the street near her home. She was struck by two cars.

Killed was Margaret Galindo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cruz Galindo of 685 Skyline Drive.

Witnesses told Highway Patrolman Lloyd Anderson that the girl was with three or four other children beside Skyline Boulevard last Tuesday afternoon when the large rubber ball they were playing with rolled across the southbound lanes of the highway and came to rest in the center divider strip.

Margaret, witnesses said, dashed onto the roadway, then control of the property or sell the parcels.

If Liebman decides to sell the lots, the city will require filing of a list of formal restrictions and covenants, which otherwise would not be necessary.

The planners approved, for a six-month trial period, a request by W. W. Robinson for a use permit for motorcycle rentals at 1720 El Camino Real.

Another use permit request and off-street parking variance for sales and service of motorcycles, from J. C. Dyer, was held over for a review of off-street parking.

Peter Weinberger, a member of the commission since February, 1964, was named chairman at the meeting, with Frank Tippett, the new vice chairman.

Tax Increase Is Forecast By District for expenditures of $6,056,279 or about $200,000 more than the current budget figure.

Revenues are estimated at $5,970,770, creating a deficit of $85,509.

Goodell noted that budget expenditures would continue to be reviewed and altered in an effort to reduce the gap between expenditures and revenues.

The budget will not be presented to district residents until August when a hearing will be held.

In the interim, as in past years, trustees are expected to meet in a series of budget sessions to review the fiscal plan.

Last year, the tax rate fell 29 cents. This was attributed to an unexpectedly high assessment of property, resulting from the county's reassessment program.

This year, Goodell said, the district estimates a 2 to 3 per cent increase in the assessed valuation.

Industrial Arts Concept Outlined

a lift truck—giving flexibility to use of the machinery.

Other areas of the building, proposed as a circular structure, would be devoted to research and development, to the graphic arts and to study.

Students wouldn't sign up for a single subject, such as woodworking or electricity, but would sign up for the general field of industrial arts.

Sanden described the approach as "a very new idea." He said that although the concept has not been put into effect in any district to date, it "has received very wide support" from a number of districts.

He added that the building could incorporate moveable walls that would enable the district to convert the structure to a conventional industrial arts complex.

After the presentation by the teachers, trustees promised to consider the plan carefully.

In other action, the trustees:

Heard a report given by Robert Nissen, Robert Delzell and Layton Jones, officers in the Jefferson District Federation of Teachers, on a comprehensive plan proposed by the federation for "a program for a more effective school system" in the district.

Heard a report from District Supt. Edward Morgan that the district's four high schools and the adult education school had received a five-year accreditation from the Western Association of Schools and Colleges, based on an accreditation committee visit to the district March 14-16.

Morgan termed the accreditation "an honor and credit to our staff" and said the "committee was very flattering to our school."

Passed a resolution, honoring the memory of John Mongan, with Jefferson High School for 11 years, who died last month.

Morgan reported that teachers in the school have signed a petition, asking the board to name a high school after Mongan.

Called for more residents to volunteer for service on a new attendance study committee that will investigate possible de facto segregation in the district.

Richard Coltrell, administrative assistant, reported that only 34 persons were listed as volunteers to date, compared to 103 listed for a prior boundary study committee.

Morgan said that the Brisbane and Bayshore School Districts had declined to accept the high school district's invitation to participate in setting up the committee.

He added, however, that the Leguna Salada School District had volunteered names of 15 persons. The Jefferson Elementary School District, he remarked, had not indicated whether it would accept the invitation.

single family dwellings on the land with a density of 4.5 homes per acre. All structures will be single-family units.

In other action, the commission:

Granted a variance to Marvin Conely to build a single-family dwelling on a non-conforming building site at 212 Arroyo Drive.

Granted an application from James Kaufman on behalf of Mike Cozzolino to change the hours of operation of a quarry on Sharp Park Road. The new hours will be from 8:15 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

There will be a stipulation that the trucks run at five-minute intervals between 8:15 and 8:45 a.m. and between 3:45 to 4:30 p.m.

The old hours were from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Reason for the new hours is that a new traffic count has been made which shows that peak traffic occurs before the quarry now opens and just after it closes.

Reasons for the five-minute interval between trucks include need for safety of school childen and traffic congestion.

Advised Mrs. Edna Hyers to seek a use permit to use a single-family dwelling at 164 Paloma Avenue as a music studio.

Set a public hearing for July 6 to reclassify two parcels of land on San Pedro Beach that presently have two real estate offices on them to commercial-residential. One of the owners of the real estate offices has suggested that the land be reclassified for offices.

Sugested that an amendment be made to the city's general plan that would designate Pedro Beach as commercial recreation and that the area on Paletto Avenue south of the Washington property be also classified as commercial recreation.

ing a study session of the planning commission a floor below, was unaware of the council's action, although he said later that he had anticipated something of the kind.

He said he had been asked to resign last week, and, with the advice of friends and numerous supporters, refused.

Referring to Rocca's charges, Steinkamp explained that he had criticized the council's rezoning of the land on which the giant White Front store now stands, because the city's general plan called for a park in that area.

The planning commission in fact recommended denial of the rezoning, and denial of a use permit for the land. The recommendations were overruled by the council.

"The general plan should have been followed," Steinkamp maintained.

He added, "I do not feel that this is sufficient cause for the council's action."

Noting that "the price of freedom of speech is high," Steinkamp nevertheless declared, "I definitely intend to continue to be active in civic affairs."

mum of additional cost to the community."

Speaking of finances, Supt. Frank Greenwood said he foresees a substantial drop in the district's tax rate.

"I would say that we will be able to reduce the tax rate by from 18 to 23 cents," he declared.

In other action, the board approved a summer recreation budget request from the City of Daly City, amounting to $37,802.80. The amount is calculated by the proportion of Jefferson District pupils within the city's area.

Another financial matter saw the trustees approve an administration request to advertise for bids at Christopher Columbus School, for the planting of $200 worth of trees as a windbreak, and approximately $20,000 for turfing and installation of a sprinkler system.

Trustee Wayne Douglas, pondering the $20,000 figure and the number of youngsters seeking jobs, suggested that Daly City youths might be hired to water the lawns, instead of putting in sprinklers.

"I think that for $20,000 we could hire a considerable number of teen-agers," he said. But he nevertheless joined his fellow trustees in an affirmative vote.

hesitated a moment as though she was undecided whether to continue on or turn back. Apparently thinking there was time, she ran on after the ball.

One car swerved sharply and missed her, but she was struck by the side of a pickup truck driven by William R. Murz, 30-year-old painter of 1277 Aspen drive, Pacifica, then was run over by a sedan driven by Bradford E. LeMoine, 18, of 284 Gateway Drive, Pacifica, a student at Ignacio Valley High School in Concord.

The young victim was dead on arrival at Mary's Help Hospital.

She was a fifth grade student at Our Lady of Mercy School.

Surviving in addition to her parents are a brother, David; two sisters, Linda and Kathy and a grandfather, Cruz Galindo Sr.

Verducci Track Meet Proclaimed

A seventh and eighth grade track meet, named in honor of the late Joseph Verducci, received the official blessing of Daly City this week.

Mayor Albert Polonsky signed a proclamation, decreeing that the event should be known as "Coach Joe Verducci Memorial Track Meet."

The meet will be staged by the Jefferson Elementary School District, starting at 1 p.m. Saturday at Benjamin Franklin School.

Verducci was a former mayor of Daly City and a coach at San Francisco State College. He died in December of 1964 before he could take office as a supervisor of San Mateo County.

The track meet will be an annual event. This is the first year it has been held.

Members of the Daly City Recreation Department will assist in administering the meet.

Commerce, reporting that merchants in the city's shopping center have consented to a draft agreement providing a subsidy from the centers to the bus firm.

The carrier, in return, would provide service tailored to meet the needs of merchants as well as the public.

The council also instructed Baldwin to draw up plans for widening Francisco Boulevard from Santa Maria Avenue to Salada Avenue to provide parking space for visitors to nearby City Hall.

No-parking signs will be installed on the rest of Francisco. The Safety Commission had recommended the signs after merchants had indicated they weren't in favor of paying for widening the street.

A cost of $7 per foot had been estimated.

In other action, the council:

Referred to the Park, Beach and Recreation Commission a letter from the 50-Plus Club, requesting clarification policies covering city-sponsored groups.

Adopted four rezoning ordinances that had been approved by the Planning Commission. The ordinances are the result of the city's new master zoning plan, approved earlier this year.

Held over proposed revisions to Park, Beach and Recreation Commission policies.

Adopted a policy memo regarding city staking for sidewalks and gutters.

Adopted a modified "select street system" that will qualify the city to use gas tax funds for street improvements.

Pickets March At Serramonte

side and snatched their for-sale signs away."

Waters affirmed a rumor that circulated Saturday to the effect that his group might picket daily. "We will definitely picket every weekend until we reach some kind of an agreement with Serramonte. We have plans to picket them daily if we can get more support."

Marchers did not extend their efforts into the residential area of the development itself on Saturday, although some did attempt to find Serramonte sales people — but to no avail. No representatives of the tract were present at the demonstration. All model homes were locked.

Daly City police maintained a constant watch over the weekend proceedings. They utilized the new Serramonte fire station as their command post from which to "control" the marchers.

Waters, when asked about plans to seek out Serramonte personnel, said that "it is up to them (Serramonte) to seek us out. The responsibility is on their shoulders now. They should come and tell us what their policy is."

Among the marchers both days was Edward Keating, Democratic candidate for the county's House of Representative seat now held by J. Arthur Younger.

Keating said he would have been at the demonstration "even if I wasn't running for office."

He said that the "same people who can't live here have to fight in Viet Nam. It's ridiculous. We like to talk about the South but we have our own problems right here."

Pickets carried signs that said such things as: "God IS Dead in Serramonte" "20,000 People —All White?" and "Open Housing—Not Segregation."

The marchers trod the Serramonte bricks from noon to 4 p.m. on both Saturday and Sunday.

A Pacifica fair housing group has reportedly expressed interest in aiding the Ad Hoc Committee's cause. Waters commented that his group "will try to work with them one or two days of the week if we picket daily."

Waters reaffirmed his group's determination to settle the matter: "If we have to, we will picket here until Christmas."

Free X-Rays Offered

Free chest X-rays will be available to visitors to the Westlake Shopping Center Tuesday and next Wednesday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

A mobile unit from the Tuberculosis Association of San Mateo County will be parked in the mall for the service on the two days.

JUDGE ISSUES RULING

JUHSD Coaches Lose Long-Standing Battle

HIGH SCHOOL coaches in the Jefferson Union High School District have lost their fight today to get extra pay for the extra work they say coaching demands.

Superior Judge Frank W. Rose ruled last week that the issue is one to be resolved in contract negotiations between the coaches and the district, not in the courts.

Trial of the case was held last September and the issue has been under submission following a period for attorneys for both sides to submit briefs.

JUDGE ROSE noted that the plaintiffs were certificated employes who, in addition to their teaching duties, were required to coach athletic teams, generally commencing with the sixth period of the school day. The coaches contended that their employment as teachers does not contemplate or require service outside the first through sixth periods, and that their coaching assigments necessitate spending considerable time after the sixth period.

To prove their claim, Judge Rose said, the plaintiffs would have had to show that their contract duties do not extend beyond the sixth period, that they are required to perform extra service beyond the sixth period, and that the contract with the district provides for extra pay for extra work.

None of these points was proved, Judge Rose said.

In fact, he said the evidence presented by both sides "established beyond question that neither teaching nor coaching assignments were limited to be performed only within the six-period class school day, and that the contracts with plaintiffs provided only a total sum for all services rendered."

"IT WAS clear from plaintiffs' evidence," the judge said, "that the coaches are a dedicated group of physical education teachers who perform their assignments as coaches not only willingly, but by their expressed desire."

RACE STARTS OVER AGAIN

Jefferson, El Camino, Westmoor All Tied For NPL Baseball Lead

Indians Rout Colts Friday For Key Win

For Westmoor, Jefferson and El Camino High School baseball teams, the North Peninsula League season is starting all over again.

All teams are deadlocked for the top spot with identical 5-2 records after Jefferson surprised El Camino, 5-1, and Westmoor dumped South San Francisco, 3-1. In the other game, Oceana edged Half Moon Bay, 6-5.

In the Jefferson win, Ron Mini hurled a three-hitter for the Indians, fanning seven. He had a no-hitter for three innings and a one-hitter going into the final frame.

Bob Bias gave Mini all the runs he needed in the first inning when he hit a two-run homer. Al Namanny belted a solo homer in the fourth, and then added an insurance RBI in the seventh with a double.

The Colts could solve Mini's magic only in the last inning when singles by Mick Ackley and Bob Tyler produced their lone score.

A leadoff walk by Corky Phelps, followed by two-baggers by Bob Gibbons and Grady Proctor powered the Rams to their victory over SSF. Phelps worked the first four frames, getting credit for the win, and Paul Pucci finished up. The Rams' other tally came in the third when Gibbons was hit by a pitch with the bags full, forcing in the runner from third.

The Warriors scored in the fifth when Joe Maderos singled Rich Ellers home from second. Ellers had a perfect three-for-three on the afternoon.

Oceana scored a single run in the seventh inning on a base on balls, a steal, a sacrifice and an infield out to hand Half Moon Bay its seventh NPL loss. Charlie Morello went the distance for the Sharks, pitching a fine game.

Last Tuesday, in a make-up game that was fogged out four weeks ago, Westmoor edged by tough Terra Nova, 8-6, in Daly City.

The Tigers had led in the first game, 3-0, played on March 29, but the Rams tied it at 3-3. Then, as the fog rolled in over the North County hills, two fly balls were lost in the soup and the tilt was called after the fourth frame.

Both teams started from scratch, and, after Terra Nova took a 1-0 lead in the first, Westmoor scored three times in the bottom of the third and thrice more in the fourth to annex the win.

Greg Agar paced the three-run rally in the third inning with a two-run homer. The Tigers then came back with four unearned runs, sparked by singles by Monte Post, Mike Castro, Jim Bresnahan and Mike Woodward.

The Rams went ahead, 6-5, with three runs in the bottom of the fifth, but Terra Nova came back to tie it up in the top of the sixth inning. The winning tally came in Westmoor's half of the sixth when Dave Lowy walked, was sacrificed to second and came home on a throwing error.

The Rams acquired an insurance run when Agar walked, went to second on a fielder's choice, took third on an error and scored on a double steal.

Phelps was the winning pitcher, striking out eight and walking six before lifted in the top of the sixth. Paul Pucci came on to preserve the victory, retiring the last five men.

Swimming Class To Be Offered

The last adult swimming class of the year will be offered at the Jefferson High School pool beginning tonight at 6:30 and continuing every Wednesday for five weeks.

Classes will be offered in beginning, intermediate and advanced categories. A fee of $3.50 will be charged for the five lessons.

Board Fires Sumpter As H.M.B. Coach

Trustees of the Cabrillo Unified School District meeting in special session last week voted to terminate the employment of Half Moon Bay High School football coach Wesley L. Sumpter over the objection of one board member.

The board's majority action was opposed by James Anderson, an El Granada businessman who voted against the action.

Board President Douglas C. Booth ruled, however, that Anderson could not vote as he was not at the Redwood City hearing Thursday at which Paul A. Winton, hearing officer of the Office of Administrative Procedure of the State Department of General Services, reviewed evidence and met with school trustees to advise them of their rights.

Principal Leamon Hanson testified at the hearing that on two occasions he smelled alcohol on the dismissed coach's breath.

Superintendent Lowell Brubaker backed Booth's ruling when he told Anderson, "That's right, Jim, you cannot vote because you were not at the hearing."

NORTH COUNTY SPORT SCENE

EASY VICTORY

S.S.F. Swimmers Annex NPL Title

South San Francisco High School swim coach Cliff Sansot will go along with the adage that you can't deny class.

His Warrior swimmers, undefeated in North Peninsula League dual meet wars, did as they were supposed to last Friday and easily annexed the 1966 NPL championships at the El Camino High pool.

South SF tallied up 111 points, compared to runner-up Oceana's 50 points. Jefferson was third in the six-team field finals with 37 markers.

Bill Muench paced the Warrior swimmers with two first places, winning the 200-yard free style in 2:11.1 and annexing the 100-fly in 1:04 flat.

Four marks fell in the finals, with the Warriors picking up two of the new standards. Ken Belli established a new mark in the 220 individual medley with a 2:18.7 clocking, while Warrior teammate Russ Tambini rewrote the record books in the 400-yard free event with a 4:50.7 effort.

Westmoor's Bill Pughe also etched his name into the NPL record book, when he traversed the 100-yard breast in 1:09.5.

There were no new marks in the Class B finals, also won by South San Francisco, but John Olson of Camino and Fred Nichols of South S.F. set new marks in the Class C meet. Olson recorded a 26.2 effort in the 50-yard free, while Nichols won the 50-yard breast with record-shattering 33.6 time.

First-Place Form

TUCKING IN gracefully, El Camino High School varsity diver Cliff Dahlberg executes one of the dives that won him first place in last weekend's North Peninsula League swimming meet held at the Colts' pool. Dahlberg finished the meet with a total of 217.20 to take the title. South San Francisco won the varsity meet as expected. (Post-Times Photo)

Horgan's Corner

By JOHN HORGAN

WHEN HIGH SCHOOL athletes quit a team there are always questions asked. When a prominent prep leaves a team even more queries are made.

Hence, the now infamous situation at South San Francisco High School needs some clarification. Especially so, since the somewhat inflammatory emotion in the case has now simmered down.

Let's just summarize what occurred: All-American football star Greg Jones, on advice of his physician, left the Warrior baseball team; a variety of reasons (the main one concerned his health) were given for the move; suffice to say that the situation was complex; two weeks later two more members of the team left; John Moro and Joe Smith, both friends of Jones, both football players and seniors, quit for a different set of reasons.

The two related cases were given tremendous publicity in local papers. The only reason that the situation got that publicity was because of the names of the boys involved. Now we come to the heart of the matter.

THE BASIC thing to remember is that preps leave their teams every day. The situation is nothing new. Such cases will occur again tomorrow and the next day. And these cases will happen at a variety of high schools in the county. It's not an inherent problem at South San Francisco. (On the contrary, if anything, S.S.F. has one of the proudest sports records in the county and—a history of good morale.)

But, since the Warriors seem to have an overabundance of quality athletes, any item of a controversial nature at S.S.F. is of key significance for the large sports-minded public of the county. It's names that make news in any journalistic field and prep sports is no exception.

That fact is an unfortunate fact of life for athletes so young. Really, while sports are healthy and quite probably do prepare the preps for the pressures of later life, the current situation, as exemplified by the South S.F. matter, is unfortunate. The case of the Warriors is an example of a condition gone wild.

IT IS NOT the purpose of this writer to say whether the players at South San Francisco were right or whether their coach, Bob Brian, was. Who knows? Probably both sides were a bit at fault. The main point is that the case is not that momentous. It (boys quitting a team) happens quite regularly.

The South San Francisco affair was special because the school and the athletes involved are "names." The school, the team and the boys have been in the limelight for some time. However, to play the story in a paper as if the matter bordered on an international incident was and is unfair.

Surely, the papers are entitled to run complete and accurate (emphasis on "accurate" here) stories on the case. But the papers must keep the stories in perspective. The youths involved are preps, they are young and they are students. The coaches are essentially schoolteachers doing their job.

To omit such stories from a paper is both negligent and wrong. But to play them up so huge that an incorrect impression is obtained is also wrong.

When dealing with high schoolers a careful hand must be used in such matters. These athletes are under enough pressure as it is.

Volleyball Meet Won By Telstars

The Telstars Junior Teen Club reigns as champion of the Daly City Recreation Department's 1966 Junior High Co-Ed Volleyball Tournament.

The Telstars' three teams, the Mustangs, XKE's and GTO's, took this year's crown in a close playoff against the Imperials, the 1963 tournament champions.

The Casualiers, last year's champs, took third place, followed by the Know Names, Roof Raisers and Bovines.

This year's tournament, held in the Westmoor High School gymnasium, saw three teams representing each of the six junior teen clubs.

Each team played in a separate division. The overall won-loss record of each club's three teams determined the tournament champion.

Petre Vallarino, recreation supervisor, presented a perpetual trophy to Steve Petillo, Dave Goldman, and Steve Levin, captains of the winning teams.

Mustangs Nip Mateans, 1-0

Capuchino High School pitcher Russ Antracoli continued his effective work in the Mid-Peninsula League by hurling the Mustangs to a 1-0 win over San Mateo last week.

Antracoli, who has a no-hitter to his credit this year, tossed a one-hitter at the Mateans. The Bearcats' sole bingle was a single by Bob Patterson.

The win gave Cap a 3-2 record in league play.

By LE PACINI

AL FIGONE'S recent North County Baseball School was not only a success from the youngsters' point of view with the fine instruction offered by the instructional staff of Chic Pieretti, Nini Torney, Goose Goscin, Irv Delman, Rich Scramaglia, Roger Miller and Raul Sauceda, but it was also an interesting day for the older folks, who were regaled by the sideline baseball stories of the personable Pieretti.

Pieretti told of the fabulous speed of the great Washington outfielder George Case, who led the American League six times in stolen bases (five consecutively) before a premature retirement because of a spinal injury.

"One day," says Pieretti, "Al Evans—a slow catcher—is on second, Case on First, and the batter hits one of those drives that you have to hold up on because it looks like the right fielder might have a chance at it. But it gets by him and rolls in back of him. Evans comes home, but there's a perfect peg to the plate and Clyde McCullough puts the tag on Evans. He brings his glove up to prepare to throw to keep Case nailed down, and Case slides right under his glove. McCullough hadn't known it, but Case had been right on Evans' heels!

"During George's next to last year—which he spent with Cleveland—there's a 23-year-old kid from Washington named Gil Coan who everybody says is faster than George, and they want them to race a 100-yard sprint.

"George agrees under two conditions: that he has two weeks to practice, and that each club puts up $500, winner take all. The clubs agree and two weeks later before a game they have regular AAU officials there with stop watches, starting blocks, the distance measured off, everything.

"Now, bear in mind, George is seven years older than Coan and about to retire because of a spur on his spine.

"The race starts and Case gets such a jump that he looks over his shoulder at Coan the last few yards and jogs in.

"In uniform on a grass track, Case is officially timed that night at 10 flat!"

PIERETTI SAYS the most fascinating character he ever met was Bob Dillinger, with whom he roomed in the Coast League when both were with Sacramento.

Dillinger had a major lifetime batting average of .306 and when the Athletics led the league in stolen bases for three consecutive years. But he hever made the majors until he was 27 and was back in the minors at 32, even though he hit .301 for the White Sox during his last season.

Dilinger's problem was that no manager ever figured out how to handle this eccentric athlete, who insisted he could play only when he was in the mood.

"Dillinger could have been one of the greatest batters who ever lived had he felt like hitting every day," says Pieretti.

"His batting technique was so perfect that during batting practice he used to put his glove on his head and demonstrate how to keep your head and swing level by slashing line drive after line drive without the glove ever budging from hi head.

"He never owned his own bat. He always contended that a good hitter could hit with anything. "To prove his point, one day he goes to an Owl-Rexall drugstore and buys a bat. He takes it to the park with him that day and says he will demonstrate his theory. Everybody tells him he's going to break his hands, especially since that day there is a guy pitching who throws asperin tablets.

"'The first fast ball that guy throws me,' says Dillinger—who felt like playing that day—'I'm going to PULL into left field for a hit.'

"Sure enough, he belts a line drive to the left, the fast ball the guy feeds him, even though nobody else on the team can get around on the guy.

"Then he says, 'Next time I will hit to right field,' and sure enough, next time up he smacks a line drive to right field for another hit.

"But the most amazing thing he ever did was during the last week of the season when he led the Coast League in hitting. Artie Wilson was only three points behind him going into that week and got 16 hits. And Dillinger—who felt like hitting that week—GAINED on him and took the batting title in a breeze."

PIERETTI SAYS the oddest play he ever saw in baseball involved, again, Case and his fabulous speed.

"Bobo Newsom is pitching and George is on first, and Newsom goes into the big, long stretch he used to take, in which he'd raise his hands way over his head and wiggle them around slowly bringing them down to the stretch position.

"As Newsom's doing this, Case takes off for second, and by the time everybody yells and the stunned Newsom gets his hands down from way up there, Case is on second. Bobo starts to throw to second, but Case isn't there. Bobo looks around, and there's Case headed for third, too late for Newsom to risk a hurried throw.

"Case stole two bases without a ball being thrown!"

PERHAPS WE'RE CYNICAL, but we don't think Bill Russell was made coach of the Celtics because he is considered especially good coaching timber or because he's a Negro. We think it's because he might have retired without an extra incentive, and Auerbach figured that Russell wouldn't cut his own throat by quitting.

WE'RE TIRED of "experts" saying that the Giants have no pitching. That was their strong point last year (they had one of the top team earned run averages in the majors) and maybe again this season.

In Marichal they have a man who, over the past five years, has won more games than either Drysdale or Koufax, and who, with a couple of breaks, could have been the first pitcher in many, many years to win 25 games for two consecutive years.

Bob Shaw has won games in double figures five times (18, 16, 15, 13, 12), and Bob Bolin won 14 games last year even though he didn't get into regular rotation until relatively late in the season.

Ron Herbel won 12 games last season in only 171 innings, and Gaylord Perry, admittedly an in-and-outer, did win 12 in '64 even though much of the season went by before he got in rotation.

Joe Gibbon, now over arm troubles and probably a better starter than reliever (remember how they had Shaw tabbed as a reliever when he had always had his best success as a starter?), won 13 games for Pittsburgh a few years back in less than 200 innings of pitching.

Lindy McDaniel and Bill Henry have been two of the National League's top relief pitchers for the past eight years, and Frank Linzy was Rookie Pitcher of the Year last season.

It's not a Dodger staff, but then neither are 18 other major league pitching staffs.

WESTMOOR CINDERS ARE UNDEFEATED

Bob Lotti's Ram Track Team Is County's Big State Meet Hope

By JOHN HORGAN

Outstanding track and field teams are built on tradition.

It is a well-known and accepted fact that San Mateo County suffers from a paucity of winning teams and highly rated athletes because of a lack of this commodity.

Schools like Carlmont and San Mateo are exceptions to the rule. Serra, Burlingame, San Carlos and Menlo-Atherton are beginning their own traditions to try to catch up with the leaders. But one school is making phenomenal progress both team-wise and individually and is about to overtake the leaders in one massive effort.

Westmoor of Daly City, under the sound tutelage of Bob Lotti, has already established itself during the past two seasons as the best track team in the county.

The Rams have not lost a dual meet in two seasons. They have beaten Carlmont and Burlingame for two straight years now to put the only blots on the marks of those two schools. They crushed Serra as well this season for the Pads' sole loss of the campaign.

Even more important, Lotti's Legions have swept every meet this year in league play. Only a disputed relay with Terra Nova in the B division stands between the Rams and a perfect "all-sweeping" season in North Peninsula League action.

BOB LOTTI

Yesterday Westmoor and the Tigers replayed that relay. If the Westmoor B's won it they will have won their division meet with the Tigers who led going into the relay, 59-58.

However on the varsity level, Westmoor has no peer in the county.

"Our greatest achievement over the past two years has been beating Carlmont," asserted Lotti last week.

Lotti, who graduated from Notre Dame in 1960 after attending Serra in San Mateo, is convinced that this year's team will score well in the North Coast Section competition laster in the year.

"We have two boys in particular, Ed Temple in the mile and Jim Johnston in the pole vault, who have a fine chance of scoring well in that meet."

Johnston has a 13-6 mark to his credit and Lotti expects him to go over 14-0.

Temple, a senior, has a best of 4:27 in the mile and leads a quartet of distance runners which has set the NPL back on its collective ear this year. Tom Torlakson (with a best of 4:34.0), Jerry Palmer (with a best of 4:28) and Milo Torres (with a best of 4:36) complete the stellar cast of distance men.

Torres is best known for his work in the two-mile with a best of 9:50. The other three are around the 10:00 area in that event.

Torlakson and Palmer are both juniors while Torres, like Temple, is a senior.

As Lotti put it, "this would be a fantastic group to have for a four-mile relay team." There are other stars too on this team.

Bruce Herald, a Westmoor honor student as well as a fine athlete, has his sights set on a sub :50 440. "He holds the NCS record in the 330," says Lotti. "He ought to be ready now to make an all-out effort on the 440 now."

Herald is joined in the 440 by Ray Simonovich who has clocked a good average of about 51.5 consistently this year.

John Glebow in the shotput and John Sirrianni in the broad jump are two other dual meet mainstays for the Rams.

Lotti had over 100 boys go out for track this year but it was a struggle for a while. According to the coach, "I had to go through the halls and drag kids out for the team by their shirts at the start."

But the move has paid off. The Rams will breeze to the NPL crown again this year against minimal competition and then take up the cudgel against sectional competition.

And, after good efforts in some of the big relays at King City and Davis, the Rams ought to be ready to make their mark against Northern California's finest.

After all, with a few exceptions, this school is almost the county's sole hope against the rest of the state.

NPL Track Final Is All Westmoor

Westmoor High School will rule a heavy favorite in the North Peninsula League track and field finals, which will begin May 11 at Oceana. The finals will be staged the following Friday on the same cinderpath.

The Rams completed their dual meet season with a 5-0 record last Friday, after whipping El Camino High School, 92-30, in Daly City.

Also finishing the campaign with perfect records were the Rams' class B and class C teams. They won their final dual meets yesterday over El Camino by scores of 92-27 and 74-21.

Bruce Herald paced the varsity victory with a double win. He took the quarter mile and the furlong.

All but two of Westmoor's class B thinclads posted double wins. The twin winners were Rob Stillwell, Jeff Cochran, Paul Adami, Jeff Young, Dan Whiting and Bill Kitchen.

Frank Distenfano posted a triple in the class C division, winning the 100, 220 and shotput. Chuck Johnston scored a double, taking the pole vault at 12-0. Neil Blackfield also doubled for the Rams.

The Rams will be idle until the NPL finals.

Sea Bowl Jottings

By GINNY FEATHERSTONE

The Campership Tournament is still going and there is still plenty of time left to bowl. The league division ends May 6 and the open play division ends May 15. Come in and bowl any time.

While a lot of our leagues are still bowling their winter season, some have started their summer season, and are going strong.

KINGS AND QUEENS: Frank Mendibles was high for the men with a 213 and 592. For the ladies SAM RUGG, bowling for AMF a 195 and 486 was high.

835 SCRATCH: There were quite a few 600s shot tonight with ORVILLE LE NOUS bowling for Dan's Shoes leading with a 611. Also bowling for Dan's, DAN URIATE had a 609 along with high game of 255.

Other nice series, DAVE SARMENTO a 605, BILL McCURDY bowling for Skyline Cleaners, a 603 with a 245 game, and LARRY HUTCHINSON, a 600 even.

900 CLASSIC: Bowling for Solar Ceilings, BOB MOLDOVAN had high series with 623. BILL GREER took the high game with a 231, for his team, Caswell Coffee. PUAL STERLING, bowling for Biagi Insurance, had a 602

COCKTAIL HITS AND MRS.: Bowling for Farber's Pharmacy ART MARCHINGTON had high series with a 535. Also for Farber's, JUNE HURTADO, was high for the ladies with a 463. C. E. CARLTON, bowling for California Auto Supply, had the high game with a 215.

COCKTAIL SLAVES AND MASTERS: HANK KEHRBERG bowling for L and S Drayage was high for the men with a 581. BILL FUNK also of L and S had high game of 221.

For the ladies GINNY FEATHERSTONE, 491, for Krake Consruction, and DONNA ALVIS, 490, for Walt's Tavern. This was sweepstakes night for the league and first place for the men was HANK KEHRBERG and for the ladies, JUNE HURTADO.

YAWNERS: Bowling for Awards Unlimited, LOIS WILSON was high with a 474, and a nice 182 game. KAY SAXEN, bowling for the Pacifica Tribune team, had high game of 192 for a 471. There were two splits picked up. RUTH SEALEC, the 5-7-9, and BARB BRAUNWORTH, also the 5-7-9.

SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED

More Wins Are Rams' Grid Goal

Hoping to boucne back from his worst football season since 1958, Westmoor High School's grid coach, Pete Matisi, has announced his club's 1966 schedule.

The Rams, who compiled a lowly 3-6-0 season in 1965, will play a six-game North Peninsula League schedule and three practice games which feature tilts with two members of the rugged Catholic Athletic League.

The Rams begin their season with games with Serra of San Mateo and Riordan of San Francisco, both members of the far-flung CAL.

"We expect both of them to be tough," said Matisi last week as he and his assistants began charting Ram prospects for the coming acmpaign.

The Rams' final practice contest will be with Mills of the Mid-Peninsula League on October 28. The Vikings are considered one of the favorites in the MPL. They were 7-2-0 last year.

Westmoor will play five home games and four on the road on its nine-game schedule. All games are scheduled for the afternoon.

Matisi returns ten lettermen from his '65 unit and brings up about 35 good juniors from the frosh-soph team.

Top individuals are expected to be Dave Dotur, Burt Lanthier, Grant Easely and Grady proctor.

Lanthier, at 190 pounds and only a junior, is the brother of John, an all-county tackle last year.

CSM to Host Pair of Events

The College of San Mateo's sports facilities will be the focus of attention this weekend as two major championships will be decided on the College Heights grounds.

Both the Golden Gate Conference track and field and GGC tennis championships will be held Saturday.

CSM is favored to win the tennis title. City College of San Francisco is favored to take the track crown.

DENNIS TRACY, former Westmoor distance man, will enter the mile today for the College of San Mateo as the Bulldog track team hosts the Golden Gate Conference championship trials at 3:30. CSM hosts the finals on Saturday.

HEATER CONTROLS CHANGED

A centrally operated heater control with sliding levers is featured on 1966 Chevelle and Chevy II models. The horizontal levers are easier to operate than the pull knobs used in previous years.

Ram Runners Scintillate

Three Westmoor High School two-milers finished in the top five in the first annual North Peninsula Invitational held at Stanford University over the weekend.

Ed Temple finished second to San Mateos Ted Lydon in 9:47.0. Lydon had a tremendous 9:25.5 and was never seriously challenged.

The Rams' Hal Palmer finished third in 9:48.0 and Milo Torres of Westmoor ended fifth in 9:50.8.

The trio represented one of the best high school three-man efforts in the two-mile in the brief history of the event.

Westlake Bowl News

Two more league champions were crowned last week as the Choice Properties Real Estate Co. won the Ladies' 850 Scratch League and the John Rossi Florists took first place in the Golden Gate Handicap League.

On the final night of competition in the Ladies' 850 Scratch League MILLIE WELLING took leading lady honors with a great 622 series on games of 223-196-203. In the Golden Gate Handicap League, HERB SUHR again led the pin parade, this time with a 219 game and 586 series.

Summer is "physical fitness time" for many local bowlers as they register for the various summer leagues. This summer there is a wide variety of leagues to satisfy the desires of bowlers of all levels of experience.

The 10-team Girl Scouts' league is the latest to start at Westlake as more and more Boy Scout and Girl Scout troops and packs are making bowling part of their program. Junior DIRECTOR MARGE BROWN has organized a free instruction program for beginners.

ROY GARCIA started with a 255 game, rolled a 213 second game and a 152 third game to lead the 850 American Scratch League with a 620, a one-pin advantage over JOHN BROWN who shot 233-178 and 216 for 619.

Lake Merced Handicap bowler of the week was GENE DEL PRETE with a big 595 series on a 238 high game.

ELMIRA GARCIA and LEE JOHNSON both rolled games of 188 in the Keg-teerites' League as MYRTLE GRASSEL took top honors with 199. Elmira's 552 was high series for the day.

Secretary MARY CARABEUC and DOT CARRARA shared honors in the St. Thomas More League, Mary with a high game of 181 and Dot with a 473 series.

As the summer 510 Mixed Scratch Trio started competition WONNIE GRACHEFF and DON IRWING were high rollers with 177—457 and 225—782 in the four-game league.

As the Junior 900 Masters League draws to a close, our Westlake team is making a strong bid to move into first place. Last week GARY POLLACK led the team to three victories in his first appearance on the team. Gary had games of 210-215 and 179 for a 604 series. Another newcomer, BARRY BROWN posted 585 on games of 158-182 and 245. The Westlakers are now tied for fifth place, five and one-half games out of first. Next Sunday they take a rest for Mothers' Day but will be back in action May 15 at Lucky Lanes.

MARILYN KRETZ continued her high rolling as she took high game honors in the St. Emydius Belles League with 187. High series went to JEANNETTE GANEM with 488. Split converters were PEG MURRISO 4-5; DOLORES MAGRI 4-7; YVONNE O'DONNELL 3-10 and 5-10; GERTRUDE CLAUSEN 4-5-7, and ELOISE RUGGERI 3-10.

S.S.F. Track Team Takes Triangular

The South San Francisco High School track team, by its own standards, figured that last Friday was one heck of a good day.

The Warrior cinders fattened up their average as they added a double dual meet to the win column, downing Riordan, 69-53, and trouncing Half Moon Bay, 113-5

Gary John and Craig Del Greco paced the victory with two wins each. John recorded his best winning time this season in the 440-yard run, stopping the watches in 50.7 seconds. He also won the 220 in 22.7, the fastest around-the-turn time on the South SF oval this season.

Del Greco accounted for victories in the 120 high hurdles and the 180 lows. The victory over Half Moon Bay gave the League dual meet record.

Tony Anninos won two events to lead the Warrior class C team to victory over the Cougars and the Crusaders.

Junior Champ Finals Near

With the finals of the annual Junior Champ Junior Olympics set for May 14, the Pacifica Jaycees have announced that four complete relay teams have been signed for the competition.

The Olympics will start at 10 a.m. at Terra Nova High School's track.

The three divisions in the competition are classified by age groups: nine to ten; 11 to 12, and 13 to 14.

First, second and third place medals will be awarded.

Winners in the two upper division brackets will be eligible to compete at the North State finals to be held at Stockton on June 18.

National Junior Champ finals will be held at Denver in August.

MIDGET LEAGUE
NATIONAL DIVISION

National Division baseball play got underway last week in the Midget baseball league as all six teams got into the "spring swing" of knocking the little horsehide ball around.

The PAL Mustangs displayed power at the plate and on the mound as they defeated the PAL Yankees 14-0. Jim Wyatt of the Mustangs allowed only two hits while striking out ten batters enroute to his shuoout victory. Jeff Berghello and Steve Peters were the only Yankee hitters who connected for safeties.

The Hunts Bombers walloped Blakes' Bulldogs by the score of 14-3. Joe Randolph and Bob Shields were the big stickers for the Bomber team as each pounded out three hits in four trips to the plate. The Bombers' Gary Steller contributed two big triples to his team's effort. Antoni of the Bulldogs collected two hits in four trips to the plate.

In the league's first upset victory, the OLPH Falcons defeated the Holy Angels Astros 4-2. Tom Lujan, Falcon pitcher, struck out 10 Astro batters enroute to his first league victory. The Astro's Bob Bernie was an offensive standout as he collected two hits.

INTERMEDIATE LEAGUE

The BYA Unique Blinds jumped into the winner's column last week with a wild 13-10 victory over the BYA Bender Roofers. Andy Evangelista was impressive at the plate for the Unique Blinds' team as he collected three hits. Dave Glass and Dean Schroth led the Bender Roofing attack with three hits apiece.

In another wild affair the PAL Colts bombed the OLPH Hawks 21-9. Dave Mibelli and John Giannini swung the big bats for the Colts with Mibelli going 5 for 6 and Giannini 4 for 5. The Colts' Tim Kimabll contributed a home run to the winning cause. Leading the Hawk's attack was Tim Denning as he collected two hits in four trips to the plate.

BYA Unique Blinds	1	1
OLPH Hawks	1	1
BYA Bender Roofing	0	2

JUNIOR LEAGUE

The BYA Rams defeated the San Francisco Green Sox 4-2 behind the steady pitching of Rich Martinez who saw his no-hit game broken up the last inning with two outs against the opponents. Robbie O'Neil collected 2 safeties for the Rams while Tony Almiral, Dan Caune and Mark Scannell each contributed a safety for the Green Sox effort.

The Holy Angels Shamrocks after being down in the fifth inning, 4-1, came from behind to defeat the PAL Eagles 8-7 behind the clutch hitting of Lew Neve who knocked in the winning Shamrock run. Al Liske of the Eagles led his team with two hits.

The Hunts Donuts Broncos had a bye.

Oceana Unit Upsets Jeff Cindermen

The Oceana High School track team gained revenge last Friday by upsetting Jefferson 70-52, in a North Peninsula League Warriors a 4-1 North Peninsula dual cinder meet amid sunny skies on the Shark oval.

The win reversed an earlier practice loss to the Jeffs and gave Oceana a 3-2 NPL dual meet record.

"It was strictly a team effort with everybody coming through in their respective events," said Shark Coach Bill LaForge, following the victory.

Top individual honors went to Jeff's Jasper Brown, who was victorious in three events. Brown captured the 120-yard high hurdles with a 16 flat clocking, annexed the 220 with a 23.5 time and won the broad-jump with a 19-7 effort.

Cap Vaulter Clears 13-1 In Easy Win

Capuchino High School, flashing power in all events, defeated Aragon High, 85-34, in a Mid-Peninsula League dual track meet on the winner's oval last Friday.

Cap's Rich Dragovich and Larry Wright captured the individual honors of the day. Dragovich tied his career best in the pole vault when he cleared the bar at 13-1.

Wright annexed the 120-yard high hurdles in 16.2 seconds and then came back to win the 180 lows with a 21.1 effort. Bob Schaar also recorded his season's best in the shotput, winning the event with a heave of 46.7.

Pete Aiello and Ron Ruggels, both double winners, let the Cap Class B team to a 73-49 conquest of the Don lights. Larry Herber set a new class B school standard in the pole vault when he soared 11-6¾. Gordon Renfro was a double winner for the Mustangs' class C team, with Aragon winning the C competition, 61-32.

Aquacade Is Set at CSM

More than 30 co-eds will perform for the public Friday and Saturday nights in the first student aquacade ever presented at College of San Mateo's new campus.

The colorful program, "Twentieth Century Splash-back," will begin at 8:30 p.m. on both evenings in the college pools. Tickets, at $1 for general admission and 50 cents for children under 12 years of age, will be on sale at the gate.

All the choreography and costuming for the solos, duets, group numbers and comedy routines were created by the students, under the direction of instructor Jo Ann Rock of Belmont.

North County participants include:

Daly City, Patricia Coughlin; San Bruno, Sandi Swain, and South San Francisco, Alice Musbach.

AT BENJAMIN FRANKLIN

A Pilot Program 'Spells' Its Way Into Second Year

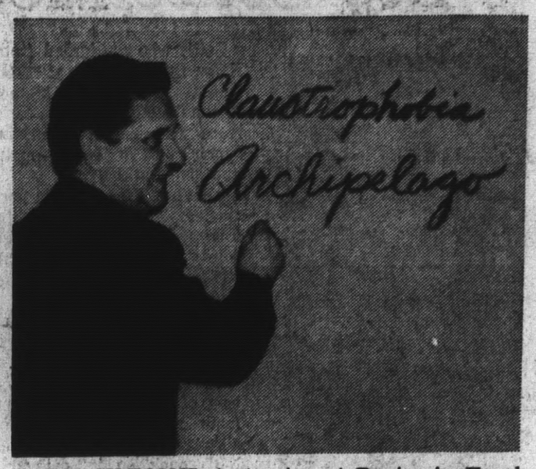
By DENIS WADE

MOST ADULTS would be hard pressed to spell the word "astucious," much less pronounce or define it.

But students at Benjamin Franklin School in Daly City know that astucious means, simply, astute — which means, according to Webster, shrewd or keen.

While students in most California schools are digesting lists from standard state spelling books, children at Ben Franklin and four other Jefferson Elementary District schools are learning how to spell — and use — words like astucious, paludamentum, psychopathologist, chlamys and graith.

Those particular examples come from word lists for accelerated students, which they compile themselves.



PARIS SIMMONS, instructor at Benjamin Franklin School in Daly City, writes list of words for typical student spelling test. Method developed by Simmons eschews standard spelling lists, concentrates instead on more difficult words such as these. Simmons hopes to expand the experimental program now used in five Jefferson Elementary District Schools.

THE PILOT program, now in its second year, is being taught in grades ranging from fourth to eighth.

It was developed by Benjamin Franklin teacher Paris Simmons, who arranged a demonstration of the system's results for parents and guests at a special meeting at the school last week.

Students who volunteered for the demonstration were divided into three groups.

One was given words which they had never seen before. The second was tested on words which they had seen for the first time one week before. The third group was given words which they had studied for a week, then missed on a previous test.

The first two groups recorded exceptionally high scores, on lists of words which included such stoppers as archipelago and claustrophobia.

The third group scored perfely.

THE DEMONSTRATION tests paralleled the system used in the classroom, where a new list of 26 words is given each week.

Simmons has developed a ten-point system for learning the new words, which includes writing each word 26 times, checking its definition in the dictionary, etc., although children are not limited to these steps.

Students are free to develop their own methods of learning the words, on which they are tested a week later. Those who miss words fill out an analysis sheet, which includes such includes such points as the reason the word was misspelled.

After analyzing the misspelling, Simmons said, repeated errors are extremely rare.

COMMENTS from parents and teachers are full of praise for the "new approach" developed by Simmons.

Parents say they have noticed improvement in spelling, word use and reading, as well as increased interest in those subjects.

Teachers point out that the word lists, which are taken from such areas as social studies, mathematics and science, help the students in those areas as well.

Students generally echo one of their number, who said, "I like what it is doing for me, but I do not like the work." Others say they find books more interesting, and spelling much easier.

One pupil, impressed with repeated writing of words, said simply, "My finger muscles are stronger."

Simmons said he has been invited to submit his method to the state curriculum committee for study.

He ahs also been asked, he said, to submit the program for a possible federal grant, which would enable the district to put the method into full operation in grades three through eight.

In the mean time, Simmons' astcious pilot program pupils will continue to prove the success of the system.

Political Roundup

THOMAS F. NOONAN, candidate for county assessor, has announced the opening of a network of campaign headquarters in six cities in the county.

The headquarters will be at 1789 El Camino Real in San Bruno, 6811 Mission Street in Daly City; 92 West Manor Drive in Pacifica; 180 El Camino Real in Millbrae and 1218 South El Camino Real in San Mateo.

JOSEPH N. MULDOWN of Atherton, candidate for county superintendent of schools, said this week that public education needs to be guided more by expert educators and less by business-minded administrators.

A sixth grade teacher at Turnbull School, in San Mateo, Muldown cited his 14 years of classroom experience and administrative work as principal of Parkside School and as principal and secretary to the board of trustees in a rural district in Fresno County.

JAMES PAUL GREEN of Daly City, candidate for county assessor, declared this week that thousands of San Mateo County veterans are faced with the fact that they have lost their tax exemption entitlement. He noted:

"This discrimination against San Mateo County veterans, as compared to veterans in other California counties, is caused by the recent re-assessment by the County Assessor's office, raising the assessment ratio to 25 per cent of market value.

Green stated the increased assessment will cost local veterans an average of approximately $100 per year, in most jurisdictions.

Father, Son Hurt in Crash

A Pacifica father and his three-year-old son were hurt at 1:55 Sunday when a motorcycle overturned at Oran Avenue and Chinese Cemetery Road, Daly City.

Winfred D. Cziska, 24, and Winfred D. Cziska, Jr., of 439 Firecrest Avenue, were taken to Mary's Help Hospital, where a spokesman said the father had a possbile shoulder injury and the son a possible head injury.

Daly City police were investigating the accident.

Louis Grech of 259 St. Catherine Drive, Daly City, reported to police last week that four knives had been stolen from his residence.

Judge Sets Trial For Hells Angel

Kenneth C. Krake, the last of four motorcyclists accused of striking a police officer during a Daly City riot April 14, has been ordered to stand trial on that charge in San Mateo County Superior Court.

North County Judicial District Municipal Court Judge F. Jose de Larios ordered Krake bound over, to appear at 9 a.m. Friday. Bail is to continue at $5,000 cash.

Krake, a member of the Hells Angels motorcycle club, was arrested with seven other riders after a wake allegedly turned into a riot. Four of the suspects were charged with misdemeanor offenses, and are to be tried in North County Court next Wednesday. Krake and three others were accused of felonies.

Chief Returns To San Bruno

San Bruno Police Chief Russell Cunningham was back at his desk Monday, after nearly a week in Sutter General Hospital in Sacramento with what department spokesmen said was a kidney ailment.

The chief was stricken Sunday, April 24, at a motel where he and his wife were staying during a visit to their daughter.

Council Bumps Bunker After Debate in Pacifica

Plans to convert a former World War II bunker in Pacifica to a police headquarters, jail, and emergency operating center, have been "laid to rest," according to City Manager Karl Baldwin, following a City Council study session on the subject.

The cost of conversion, including new access roads as well as the temporary nature of the Army lease, were all factors in the demise of the plan.

Meanwhile, a rapid population increase in Pacifica — 2,000 since last year — will require councilmen to study alternative plans for police and fire services, which, according to Baldwin, have been operating at manning levels approximately one-half of those in effect in most other Peninsula cities.

Three alternatives to be studied by the council for police headquarters are use of the present engineerig offices; housing in what was planned as a fire station on Fassler Avenue with joint use later, and rental of new quarters on a lease-purchase basis.

Police are presently housed in small quarters at the present City Hall, which is a former school house, in the Sharp Park District.

Councilmen also considered courses of action suggested by Baldwin, who outlined a three-stage program for police and fire facilities and a civic center.

Included are construction or renovation of interim facilities, detailed study of permanent housing alternatives and financing site selection, purchase and construction.

"Although the measure for a civic center site was soundly defeated at the polls," Baldwin said, "It is not believed that the citizens are unmindful of the real need for proper housing that must one day be met."

A further study session with a Civic Center Site Committee was set by the City Council for May 4.

Pats on Back For Council

In a day of frequent criticism of governing bodies, the Daly City Council has received two pats on the back.

The letters of commendation were read at the council's meeting last week.

Mrs. Ralph A. Reynolds, president of the California Roadside Council, cited Daly City for planting of palm trees in the center strip of Mission Street, the provision of landscaping as a requirement for new apartment buildings, and qualifying of the new Junipero Serra Freeway for landscaping by the state.

Mrs. Lawrence Long of Daly City wrote to thank the council for the Easter Cross installed by the city on the Crocker Hills.

"I want you to know your efforts are very much appreciated," she said.

Footlocker Is Raided

Theft of numerous sporting goods from a footlocker was reported to police by Joseph M. Havrilla of 225 Coronado, Daly City.

Taken Friday or early Saturday were three tennis rackets, three packages of tennis balls, 136 golf balls, and a baseball glove, plus two suitcases, eight padlocks, a toolbox full of tools and miscellaneous pictures.

Thieves Fail And Succeed

Burglars, thwarted in their attempt to break into a Daly City store safe, turned instead to a cash drawer and took an estimated $200 to $400, police reported.

The theft was discovered by Verne O. Lucier of San Francisco, owner of Lucier's Salad Company at 6540 Mission Street, about 5 a.m. Saturday.

He said the thieves had stacked cardboard cartons neatly against a front window to screen their safe-cracking attempt.

Police said the burglars broke through an outer door of the safe but were unable to break through an inner door.

S.S.F. Police League Picks New Officers

New officers for the South San Francisco Police Athletic League are Jim Datzman, president; Bob Moon, vice president; Douglas McCool, first vice president; Billy Peterson, second vice president; Gary Paoli, secretary; Ray McKeon, recording secretary; Stan Bennett, treasurer; Jim LaChance, sergeant at arms, and Jim Keane, director of recreation.

Witnesses to the vote tabulations were Al Klemme, Jim Keane, and David Casey.

Eleven baseball teams were set up for the spring season, with over 200 boys participating on 16 teams.

The youngsters are all between the ages of 8 and 16, and the teams will play 12 to 15 games during the season.

Klemme reported there is an urgent need for more baseball managers. If anyone is interested, he should contact the South San Francisco Police Department.

Jury Indicts Landi, Three Codefendants

Pacifica market owner Lido L. Landi and four co-defendants have been indicted by the County Grand Jury on charges of illegal bookmaking.

Landi, 37, also was indicted for the attempted bribery of a Pacifica police officer.

Charged with Landi were members of a bookie ring operating in Pacifica and Millbrae, John D. Malafouris of Pacifica, George Cunnings and June Stevens of Millbrae, and John E. Neligan of Daly City.

Police Officer Paul Averett testified at the rare daytime grand jury session that Landi at first offered him $150 a week to tip him off about bookmaking investigations in Pacifica. Later, the officer said, the offer became $150 a month. The change was not explained.

IGNITION SWITCH TAKEN

Robert L. Mattson of 624 Clarinada Avenue, Daly City, reported to police last week that thieves had stolen an ignition switch from his auto.

Looking on at left is Sister Francis Xavier. The Reverend Mother stopped at the school last week as part of her first visit to the United States. Members of the order teach at Holy Angels and at St. Veronica's School in South San Francisco where the Reverend Mother had visited earlier.

DALY CITY THEFT

Daly City police last week were investigating a report by Marion Bernstein, 6189 Mission Street, that a group of juveniles had stolen five rings, two tape recorders and a transistor radio.

CHURCH DAMAGED

Don Refvem of the Refvem Construction Company of Burlingame reported to Daly City police that vandals had again entered a church building under construction at 1470 Southgate Avenue and damaged the interior.

D.C. Couple Arrested As $6,800 in Heroin Seized

A Daly City husand and wife were arrested on narcotics charges Thursday after a carefully planned stakeout that later netted seven ounces of heroin valued at $6,800.

The suspects are Charles L. Grant, 41, and his wife, Willie, 25, of 3131 Geneva Avenue. Investigators said the husband has a prior record of narcotics convictions. The couple was charge with selling and transporting heroin.

Each of the couple posted $2,750 bail and was ordered to appear for arraignment at 2 p.m. Monday in Northern Judicial Court in South San Francisco.

Investigators said they had found $2,200 in cash in the suspects' auto.

The couple wre arrested in heir car in San Francisco after a posse of four State Narcotics Agents, two San Francisco detectives and Daly City Lt. Richard Sims had followed them from their home.

Lieutenant Sims said that in addition to the heroin and cash, two revolvers and a narcotics kit were seized.

Lots Of Luck

With all the picketing and marching being done at the Serramonte housing development in Daly City over the past weekend there was still a moment of levity in the proceedings.

One marcher, too tired to continue in the wind and fog of the North County hillside community, stopped and read a promotional sign on the roadway which read: "Home Values Sure to Increase."

His comment was a terse, "Lots of luck."

A Change of Leadership

NEWLY INSTALLED officers of the San Francisco State College Women's Faculty Club are, left to right, Mrs. Alexander Post, Mrs. Paul Hale, and Mrs. Harold Soeters of San Bruno and Mrs. Don Gibbons and Mrs. Jack Tomlinson of Daly City. Mrs. Hale is the president.

San Bruno Crime Rate Declines 22%

While the national crime rate continues to rise, San Bruno's is dropping, statistics revealed this week.

San Bruno's tabulation of crimes for the month of March show a 22 per cent drop over the same month of 1965—only 70 this year, versus 86 last year.

The largest drop is reflected in the burglary category. Where 29 were reported in 1965, only 17 were committed last month.

Thefts also declined, and there were no robberies at all this March, compared to two a year ago.

Only one category showed an increase—nine automobiles were stolen this year, an increase of one over the same month in 1965.

The cause of the significant crime decrease is probably due largely to a revamped beat system, according to Sgt. Leo Flynn.

Another major factor, he said, is the full-time patrolman now assigned to duty in the downtown area, from 10 p.m. to 6 a.m. each night.

Registration Opens for Laguna Summer School

Registration for Laguna Salada Summer School is being held this week at all schools in the district.

The session, to be held from July 5 to August 5, will operate from 8:20 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. daily.

Classes will be held at two schools, one in the north end of the district and one in the south. The school locations will be deterined by the number of childred registered in each area.

According to Summer School Principal Nathan Green, limited transportation will be provided from schools where sessions are not held, and from the Rockaway Beach, Pedro Point, and Fairway Park areas.

Parents or guardians must personally register their children by appearing at their child's school and completing forms to be turned in to the school secretary.

Parents also may register children Saturday from 9 a.m. to noon at the district's offices in Vallemar.

The summer session will be the sixth to be held by the district.

All pupils who live in the district and who are now in grades one through seven and who attend either public, private or parochial schools are eligible.

Pupils will be placed in the grades to which they were assigned during the 1965-66 school year.

In grades one to three, a four-hour, self-contained classroom program with instruction in reading, arithmetic, language skills and social science will be provided.

In grades four to seven, a two-hour team teaching program will include instruction in reading, language skills and social science.

The third and fourth hours will be spent in elective classes selected from art, dramatics, field biology, mathematics, music and science.

Further information on the summer school may be obtained by contacting Nathan Green at 871-7133.

$115,000 D.C. Beauty Plan Voted

A $115,000 Urban Beautification and Improvement Program was unainmously endorsed by the Daly City Planning Commission last week.

Planners recommended that the city council likewise approve the program, which would include dozens of civic projects including planting of hillside areas, street tree planting, improvement of "tot lot" playgrounds and landscaping for parks, reservoir sites and the new civic center.

Cost of the program would be shared by the city and the federal government. Daly City would provide about $67,000, with the government supplying over $47,000.

"Daly City will be one of the first cities in the area to take advantage of the new program," according to Edward Lawson, icty planner.

He said that the commission's resolution approving the program will go before the council, whose own action will be reviewed by federal Housing Housing and Urban Development officials prior to going before Congress this summer for final approval.

Six Licenses Approved By D.C. Council

New business licenses were authorized by the Daly City Council last week for these six applicants.

Fred R. Rodriguez, 915 Wyandotte Avenue, for Fred's Building Maintenance.

Ed Castagnetto, Box 548, Colma, Ed Castagnetto Roofing Company.

Lewis E. Williams, 6801 Mission Street, C and L Used Cars.

Alfred Galliano, 295 Morton Drive, A and G plumbing.

Clifford Andrews, 201 Westmoor Avenue, Cliff Andrews Flying "A" Service Station.

Paul T. Schabacker, executive director of the Mental Health Association, for door-to-door solicitation in Daly City during the week of May 2.

Sugar... 'n' Spice

By NELL NORTON

GOOD MORNING good cooks, I hope I've found you in a baking mood. For I have a collection of recipes that are so good you will want to rush right into the kitchen and try them. That is exactly the way I felt when they came my way and I'm glad I gave into the urge, for the results have proven to be delicious.

These goodies came from the files of Mrs. Elizabeth Small, who lives at 1287 Thirtieth Avenue in San Francisco. Mrs. Small is a teacher in San Francisco who finds time, after she finishes correcting her papers at home, to do some mighty fancy baking. These Calypso Bars are an example of her art.

CALYPSO BARS

- 2½ squares unsweetened chocolate
- 2-3 cup hot water
- 1 1-3 cups dates (chopped)
- 1 1-3 cups sugar
- 1 cup butter
- 1 teas. vanilla
- 1¼ cups brown sugar
- 1½ cups sifted flour
- ½ teas. salt
- ½ teas. soda
- 1 cup nuts (Chopped)
- 1½ cups quick-cooking oats

Melt the chocolate in hot water. Add sugar and dates and cook over low heat until thick (about five minutes). Blend in ¼ cup of the butter. Add vanilla and cool.

Cream together three-fourths cup butter and 1¼ cup brown sugar. Sift flour, salt and soda. Add to creamed mixture. Add nuts and oats. Mix until crumbly. Press ½ of this in greased 13 x 9 2-inch pan.

Spread date mixture over this then top with the rest of dry mixture. Bake in 350-degree oven for 30 minutes. Cool. Chill in refrigerator one hour before cutting.

THIS MAKES a large amount of delicious cookies, which keep well, also are nice to pack and mail, for they travel well.

While I'm giving Mrs. Small credit I might as well include this wine cake which originally came from her.

WINE CAKE

- 1 pkg. yellow cake mix.
- 1 pkg. instant vanilla pudding
- 4 eggs
- ¾ cup sherry wine
- ¾ cup oil
- 1 teaspoon nutmeg

In a large mixing bowl combine the cake mix, instant vanilla pudding, eggs, sherry wine, oil and nutmeg. Beat five minutes. Bake in greased and floured tube pan in 350-degree oven for 45 minutes.

I'M SORT of lazy and I love cakes that are made from mixes and other quick and easy ingredients. This next recipe for Tropical Coffee Cake uses a biscuit mix as a base and "gussies" it up with sugar and spice and everything nice.

TROPICAL COFFEE CAKE

- ½ cup undrained crushed pineapple
- ¼ cup brown sugar
- 3 Tbsp. butter
- 2 cups biscuit mix
- ¼ cup sugar
- 2 Tbsp. soft butter
- 1 egg
- ¾ cup milk
- ¼ cup brown sugar
- ½ teas. cinnamon
- ½ cup coconut

First combine the pineapple, brown sugar and butter in a saucepan. Bring to a boil; boil three minutes and set aside.

Combine biscuit mix, sugar, butter, egg and milk. Beat vigorously one-half minute. Grease a 9 x 9 x 2-inch pan and sprinkle a little brown sugar on the bottom. Spread half the batter in pan. Mix the brown sugar and cinnamon and sprinkle this over the batter.

Next spoon the remaining batter over the top of the cinnamon and brown sugar. Spread carefully. Pour hot pineapple glace over batter. Sprinkle with coconut. Bake in 400-degree oven 20 to 25 minutes.

N. County Couple Is Married

At home in South San Francisco are Mr. and Mrs. Ray Paul who were married recently in St. Veronica's Catholic Church.

The bride is the former Janet Gehre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Gehre of San Bruno and sister of Stephen Gehre of South San Francisco.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Paul of San Francisco.

Attending the bride were Mrs. Stehpen Gehre as matron of honor and Charleen Westram, Mrs. Dennis Hagovian and Janis Hooley as bridesmaids.

Dennis Hogobian was the best man. Steve Gehre, Kalem Barserian and Jeffery Hagovian were ushers.

A reception was held at the Holiday Inn in South San Francisco.

The Newlyweds

MR. AND MRS. RAYMOND PAUL

AAUW Of Pacifica To Meet

Pacifica Chapter of the American Association of University Women will meet today at 8 p.m. in Vallemar School.

A guest speaker from the Juvenile Division of the San San Mateo County Probation Department will discuss "The Law and the Juvenile."

The talk will include information on handling of juveniles by law enforcement agents, current legislation concerning teen-agers, and the responsibility of juveniles under the law. The public is invited to attend.

Paintings and other works of art produced by children will be displayed at the Festival of Arts this weekend at the Sanchez Adobe, Linda Mar. Each of the 13 elementary schools in the Laguna Salada School District will be represented by approximately 50 individual sentries.

Student judges, accompanied by a member of the Pacifica Art Guild, will give awards for each grade level.

The children's art is sponsored by Pacifica Chapter of the American Association of University Women.

Discussion of Teen-age Understanding Planned

"Understanding Your Teenager," will be the theme of a public Cana Conference at 8 p.m. next Thursday at St. Veronica's Parish Hall, 434 Alida Way, South San Francisco.

Chairmen are Mr. and Mrs. Robert DeHart.

Some of the topics to be included are dating, studies, chastity, drinking, growth toward maturity, respect for authority, attitude toward religion, and the meaning of adolescence.

The program will consist of two conferences, with a break for refreshments, and conclude with a question and answer period.

The speaker will be the Rev. Harold O'Donnell, vice principal of Serra High School, San Mateo, experienced in pre-Cana, Cana, and retreat work. Participating with Father O'Donnell will be a teen-age panel of two.

This is couple-centered conference specifically geared to resolving any parent-teen-ager conflict, by emphasizing some key ideas in understanding and communication.

A donation of $2 a couple will be accepted. Reservations or further information may be obtained from Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Byron, 588-0838, or Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Donhue, 761-2690.

Ursuline Guild To Seat Staff

St. John's Ursuline Guild will install new officers at 8 p.m., May 11, at Parish Hall.

The outgoing president's dinner will be May 18, at L & L Castle Lanes. Reservations should be made with Mrs. Carmelo Viscuso, 587-8007.

Constitution Talk For Women Voters' League

The reasons for California's long constitution and some of the associated problems will be discussed by Mrs. Ernest Lillienthal for members of the Provisional League of Women Voters of Northern San Mateo County.

The first general meeting of the newly-formed league will be at 9 a.m. next Wednesday at the Broadmoor Presbyterian Church, 377-87th Avenue, Daly City.

Mrs. John Kruideneir, president, will preside.

Mrs. Lillienthal, past president of the San Francisco League, is a member of the San Francisco Board of Education.

Her formal interest in California's constitution began when she participated in the original League State Legislative Committee, and since 1963, when she was appointed by the joint rules commission, she has served on the California constitutional revision commission.

The North County League currently is studying the California Constitution as part of its state program.

The local program is a "know-your-town" study, with units at Daly City, Pacifica, San Bruno and South San Francisco.

Any woman of voting age may join the league. Guests are welcome. Further information may be obtained from Mrs. Thomas Sammon, 323 King Drive, South San Francisco, 761-2033.

Professor to Show Leningrad Slides

Mrs. Lubov Shapovaloff, assistant professor of foreign languages at San Francisco State College, will present "Journey to Leningrad," a talk with slides on Russian architecture and other arts, at a meeting of the Women's Faculty Club at 3 p.m. today.

The meeting will be held in the activities room of the administration building. All faculty women and faculty wives are invited.

FAMILY LIFE OF NORTH COUNTY

Louanne's Datebook

By LOUANNE HEATH

THE COW PALACE, packed to the gills with boys in scouting attire and their proud parents, survived one of its big annual events Saturday as the Scout-O-Rama of 1966 went into the history books as a tremendous success.

The north and south exhibit halls featured 24 exhibits each and the displays ran the gamut from science and camping to clown alley and derby downs. The main arena held a stage for drum and bugle corps performances, specialty acts and appearances of sports and television personalities. Space on the floor of the arena was roped off for Scout-O-Rama Olympics and the Tournament of Games and the whole building was the finest exhibition of youthful Americans in action to be seen anywhere.

Among those who spent Saturday very much preoccuped with scouting were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rogers who spent the early part of the afternoon transporting Cubs to Junipero Serra Playground where the members of Westlake Pack 63 were contending for a place in the West of Twin Peak Softball League Playoffs. After the game the Cubs had to be transported to the Cow Palace where they took a turn manning the Pack booth which featured arts and crafts.

A RECENT traffic stopper in the Palisades area was the moving project undertaken by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith.

The Smiths, who needed extra room and wanted a better view than their home offered, purchased the house directly across the street from them and then enticed the friends and relatives to assist with the moving by promising a giant buffet for all who would lend a hand.

Laughng members of the party spent a major portion of the day "walking" the Smiths' belongings across the street and munching on the tasty tidbits spread out for them on the dining room table.

LOOKING FOR an idea for a Mother's Day gift?

The Westlake Catholic Women have just printed a delightful collection of favorite recipes supplied by some of the parishes' most accomplished cooks, illustrated by the charming sketches of Vickie Sariotti, and accompanied by sample menus created by The Post's own Nell Norton.

Anyone wishing to obtain one of the cookbooks may do so by calling Cookbook Chairman Mrs. Richard Locke, Pl 6-6067, or Westlake Catholic Women President Mrs. Robert Bell, Pl 6-4442. The books are being sold for $1.50 and delivery prior to Mothers' Day is being guaranteed.

DID YOU KNOW that the original name of Daly City was Vista Grande?

Well, according to Fuchsia Ball Chairman Mrs. Kathryn Glebow, it was and that is the prime reason that the name, Vista Grande-Gateway to the Future, has been applied to this year's ball to be staged on May 14 in the Centennial Ballroom of the Hilton Hotel.

Annually about 200 couples attend the gala evening and enjoy the no host cocktail hour which begins in the ballroom at 7:30 p.m. and this year they will have the special treat of wandering musicians during cocktails as well as the pleasure of Maury Wolohans' music for dancing when the ball begins at 9 p.m.

Decorations this year are the product of some imaginative thinking and searching by Mrs. Michael Salvenieni. Each table will be graced with the presence of a golden cherub carrying a vase of artificial fuchsia.

Others who have had a hand in the preprations for the evening include Mrs. William Corbett, co-chairman; Mrs. Anthony Costantini, last year's chairman and the 1966 honorary chairman; Mrs. Frank Ingalls, treasurer; Mrs. John Zucca and Mrs. Harold Torkelson, sponsors; Mrs. Joseph Tinney, secretary; Mrs. Alfred Finch, invitations, and Mrs. John McGuinness, SE 1-1510, and Mrs. Fred Mortara, PL 6-0668, who are in charge of the reservations.

THE WOMEN'S GUILD of Holy Angels parish will meet in the parish hall this evening at 8 p.m. according to Mrs. Marty Sugurue, publicity chairman.

Officers for the coming year will be selected and a general business meeting, presided over by President Mrs. Deloris Seitz, will be held.

THIS IS ALSO the weekend for the Holy Angels Festival to be held on Saturday on the parish schoolgrounds.

Joe Gumina is chairman of the event which will seek to raise money for the Sisters of the Holy Infant Jesus. The festival will open at 11 a.m. and run until 5 p.m., according to publicity chairman Mrs. Frank Murphy.

MR. AND MRS ARMIN OLIVERAS entertained friends at a postwedding supper in San Francisco's Shanghi Low Restaurant.

The couple was married in a surprise ceremony in Nevada recently.

THE FIRST GENERAL meeting of the newly formed League of Women Voters, Northern San Mateo County, will be held on Wednesday, May 11, at 9:30 a.m., according to Mrs. Raymond Donohue, publicity chairman.

Mrs. Donohue reports that the unit will meet in Broadmoor Presbyterian Church to hear Mrs. Ernest Lillienthal.

Mrs. Lillienthal, currently serving on the California Constitution Revision Commission, will explain why California has the third largest constitution in the world and will outline the areas of difficulty caused by this fact.

All women of voting age are invited to attend, Mrs. Donohue said.

IT IS "one of those weeks" for Mrs. William Ross of Westlake.

Marge, who is a great one for offering help is in the midst of one of her wildest weeks. This past weekend she volunteered to help take Brownie Troop 1484 to San Bruno Park when troop leader, Mrs. Myrna Gilbert, asked for assistants. Not a big job in itself but when you consider that Marge is taking care of her mother who recently fell and broke her shoulder, you can well imagine that, with all her other manifold works, she is more than merely busy.

She is also aiding Mrs. Donna Bains and Mrs. Anita Bush with Girl Scout Troop 648's preparations for its overnight camping trip.

In addition, she is still able to find time to drive her two young daughters, Debbi and Diane, to May Day Festival rehearsals.

Those chores add up to a mighty cluttered schedule for the busy North County mother.

SSF Society Will Hold Chamarita

The Santo Christo Society of South San Francisco will hold its annual chamarita on Saturday, May 14 and Sunday, May 15.

The dance will open the annual activities on Saturday from 9 to 1 p.m. at the Santo Christo Hall on Chestnut Avenue.

The committees are working to prepare the food for the annual celebration on Sunday, May 15 after their parade and mass.

The Portuguese are noted for their "Soupas' " which is a traditional custom brought here from the Azore Islands of Portugal.

John Castro and his assistants will have the meal served from 1 to 6 p.m. and anyone who would like to attend the free barbecue is invited.

The parade will start at 10:30 for mass at 11 at the Mater Delarosa Church in Sunshine Gardens.

At 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. also there will be a free dance for the general public to close the activities for the year.

In 1917 a group of Portuguese people migrated to the City of South San Francisco where they formed the Santo Christo Society in honor of their patron saint of the island in Portugal.

Every year this celebration is held to honor the Santo Christo. For two days in the year, the club, friends, and members, join together and work to thank God for all favors received during the year.

The custom is to spend time in their lives by donating their labor and food to anyone who wishes to sit at their table on these days in gratitude.

Dinner Plans

LAWRENCE R. McDONNELL, center, and James Grealish, both of Daly City, talk over plans for the annual awards dinner of Mount St Joseph's Home for Girls with Sister Yvonne, administrator of the 114-year-old San Francisco institution. The two men are assisting in arranging the dinner, which will be held in the grand ballroom of the Fairmont Hotel May 26.

Festival Scheduled

At St. Veronica's Church in South San Francisco, a carnival feeling once again filled the air last week when plans were announced that the annual parish festival would be held May 20-22.

St. Veronica's pastor, the Rev. Paul P. Coleman, named William Donovan as general chairman for the event and he, in turn, named his committee.

ward Corrigan, special awards; John Harness and Mrs. Jack Martinez, booth chairmen; Mrs. John Harness, decorations; Louis Guaraldi, dinner; James Mullady, refreshments; Ronald McCubbin, mini-golf; Mrs. James Keane, special games; Rudy Baldonado, building supervisor, and Willim Green, electrician.

The festival will feature a south-of-the-border theme. Decorations and costuming will be in a Spanish mood. "Viva Fiesta," is the name of the affair.

Mrs. Raymond Andreini is chairman of the parish and merchants' director, which again will be distributed in conjunction with the festival.

Friends of Library Will Host Collegiate Speaker

Plans have been made by the Friends of the Daly City Library for their Annual Meeting scheduled for the evening of May 19 at 8 p.m. at the Westlake Library.

Speaker for the evening will be Terrence Kilpatrick, local writer and teacher. His topic will be "TV vs. Creativity."

Kilpatrick is a graduate of San Francisco State College with an A.B. and Masters Degrees, and is now an English professor at San Francisco City College teaching in the the field of creative writing.

He has recently written a novel for Doubleday Co. titled, "The Shouting Dies," and is at present writing, producing and directing a TV pilot film for an anthology series on boxing.

Among Kilpatrick's other creative accomplishments include writing the screenplay for the movie "Barricade on the Big Black" with Lee Remick.

He has twice won awards for one act plays from the Pasadena Playhouse and has written over twenty-five TV shows for the ABC, CBS, and NBC networks.

Some of the TV shows for which he has written include the Zane Grey Theatre, The Rebel, and Kraft Theatre.

The Friends of the Library are especially proud to be able to present Kilpatrick, since he must, out of necessity, limit his speaking engagements.

The public is cordially invited to come, hear, and meet with Kilpatrick.

D.A.R. of S.F. Plans to Hold Fashion Show

An International Fashion Show given by girls from Samuel Gompers High School will be the program at the Friday meeting of San Francisco Chapter D.A.R. at the Veterans War Memorial Building, San Francisco.

The girls will model suits, cotton daytime dresses and evening dresses that they have made in their sewing classes at school.

Several prizes for the most attractive garments will be awarded by the program chairman, Mrs. Ronald Born of San Francisco.

The business meeting which starts at 7:30 p.m. will be conducted by the chapter regent, Mrs. Andrew Ross, 209 Skyline Drive, Daly City.

Mrs. Gregory A. Weingetz, assistant chaplain of the California State Society D.A.R. and past regent of the San Francisco Chapter will install the newly elected chapter officers following the business meeting.

Pacifica Group Reads, Discusses Williams Playlet

A studio reading of an excerpt from Tennessee Williams "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof" was presented to members of Pacifica's Spindrift playhouse April 22 at the cultural room in the county library at Sharp Park.

Barbara Aubuchon used the vehicle in her initial effort as director. Barbara Carroll, an experienced actress of the Oceana High School drama group, recited a difficult role in conjunction with John Jones in his first acting appearance.

After the short playlet, use of stage areas, vocal modulation and characterization was discussed.

The "studio" presentations are part of the Spindrift Playhouse program in development of acting, directing and stagecraft talent.

Those interested in attending the meetings may obtain information from Robert McGouldrick, Playhouse president at 355-4445.

Westlake Women To Elect Officers

Westlake Catholic Women will hold their last monthly meeting on Monday, in the Parish Hall, after 8 p.m. Devotions. Mrs. Robert Bell will preside. New officers will be elected for the coming year.

Mrs. Howard Poblitz will give a final report on the Festival.

A new cookbook, see Luanne's column, will be on sale.

Mrs. Ira Sariotti has announced June 5 as the date for the Installation Breakfast at Lakeside, she will be taking reservations.

Mrs. John Sullivan will be Hospitality Chairman, assisted by Mrs. George McLoughlin, Mrs. Donald McNamm, Mrs. A. J. Joyce, and Mrs. Vincent Hussey.

YWCA to Hold A Demonstration

A continuation of paper craft demonstration by Ruth Galindo will be presented tomorrow in the YWCA Holiday for Housewives program.

The meeting place is at Westlake Community Baptist Church, Southgate and Elmwood, from 10-11:30 a.m.

Bridge time is from 1-3 p.m. Ladies are invited to come to the morning program, enjoy a sack lunch, and stay for bridge.

Child care will be furnished for a small fee.

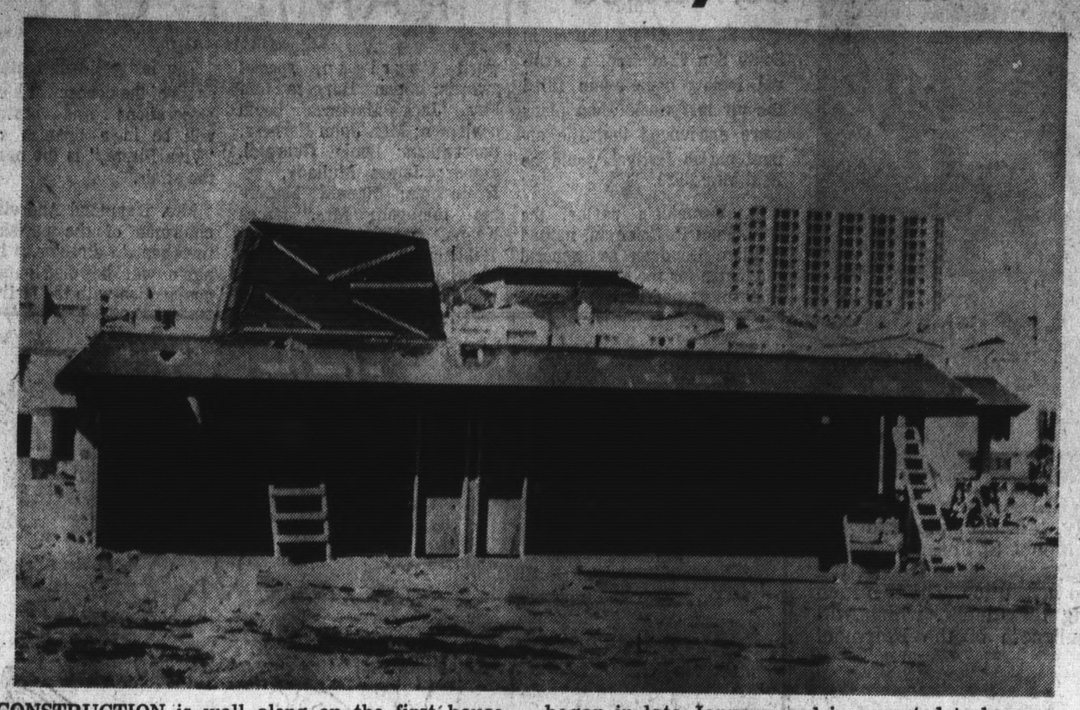
A New Home for Wesley Methodist



CONSTRUCTION is well along on the first house of worship for Wesley Methodist Church, being erected at 1474 Southgate Avenue near St. Francis Boulevard. The congregation has been meeting in Thomas Edison School. Construction of the church began in late January and is expected to be completed in mid-summer. The building under construction is the first unit of what will ultimately become a $250,000 church plant. Rev. Clifford Droke is pastor of Wesley Methodist. (Post-Times Photo)

DR. SIEGFRIED RABIE AND FAMILY

Mission Workers From S. Africa Speak at Church

Dr. and Mrs. Siegfried Rabie, medical missionaries for the American Lutheran Church in South Africa, will be guests at a congregational dinner Wednesday evening, May 11, at Westlake Lutheran Church.

Emphasizing the work of the church in the world they will speak and show slides on their medical work at the Lutheran hospital in Hlabisa, South Africa, where they have been for the past five years.

While Dr. Rabie received his medical training in Europe, Mrs. Rabie, before their marriage, was educated at St. Olaf Lutheran College, Northfield, Minn., receiving her master's degree in nursing from the University of Minnesota.

Dr. and Mrs. Rabie met in South Africa and were married there three years ago.

They are in the states for a one-year leave and are spending the month of May in California.

D.C. Church To Host S.F. Panel Meet

Broadmoor Presbyterian Church in Daly City will host the spring dinner meeting of the San Francisco Council of Churches' Delegate Assembly.

The meeting will be held at 6 p.m. Monday in the church at 377 Eighty-seventh Street, Daly City.

Main item on the agenda will be a panel discussion of the Merced Heights-Ocean View Stabilization and Neighborhood Improvement Project in San Francisco.

Service News

Airman Second Class Leroy L. Higgins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lonne Higgins of 854 Schwerin Street, Daly City, has been graduated at Keesler AFB, Miss., from the training course for U.S. Air Force radio repairmen.

The airman is being reassigned to a U.S. Air Force support unit at Izmir, Turkey, for duty.

A graduate of Jefferson High School, he received his A.A. degree from San Francisco City College.

2nd Annual Work Event Scheduled

The second annual Work Weekend at Camp Swig for Temple Judea Brotherhood will be held May 21 and 22 to make minor repairs and put the camp in better condition before the regular camp season starts. Further information may be obtained by calling Zel Baer, JU 7-8910 or John Tayler, PL 6-4425.

"Comparative Religions," an eight-week course, is the current phase of the Temple's adult education program. The course began Sunday, at the Temple on Brotherhood Way.

The instructor, Joseph Friedman, has taught comparative religions to past confirmation classes at the Temple.

The course is designed to furnish awareness of not only the similarities but also the differences between Judaism, the various branches of Christianity, Islam, and the Eastern religions.

ATTENDS LECTURES

Vernon E. Thomas of 91 Carleton Avenue, Daly City, attended the Tipple Vosburg lectures at the Theological School of Drew University, at Madison, N.J.

Becky Robb Will Attend Girls' State

Becky Robb, a junior, has been chosen as the candidate from Westmoor High School for Girls' State.

Each year, girls from throughout California are chosen for Girls' State, based upon their leadership qualities and their ability to relate to their home student body the procedures were followed at Girls' State, to be held this year at the University of California at Davis June 20-28.

Becky has served on the Westmoor student committee for accreditation.

In addition, she has served on a number of class committees and served as an assistant editor of the school newspaper, The Rampage.

The daughter of Rev. and Mrs. E. Clark Robb of 1154 Southgate Avenue, Daly City, Becky also has been active in Seacliff Community Church activities. Her father is pastor of the church.

Committee To Hold Hearing

The San Mateo County Committee on School District Organization will hold a public hearing May 26 in the cafeteria of Jefferson High School to explain details of the proposed unification of the Jefferson Union High School District.

North County residents will vote in the June primary on a proposal to unify the district.

The hearing May 26 is required by law.

'PLANNED DEVELOPMENT'

First Trial For New D.C. Zoning

Details of a proposed planned development to include apartments, a convalescent hospital and medical, dental, business and professional offices were laid before the Daly City Planning Commission last week.

The development, which would cover most of the triangle bounded by San Fernando Way, Sullivan Avenue and Mary's Help Hospital, would be the first of its kind under Daly City's "P-D" planned development zoning.

Preliminary plans, drawn by the firm of Kirker, Chapman Papazian, show the 11-acre site divided into eight separate lots, with landscaping in between.

Also included is an extension of Santa Paula Drive, which would connect San Fernando and Sullivan Avenue.

Harry Manin, speaking for the planning firm, called the plan "an ideal and well-balanced developmental concept for that area."

There would be, he told the commission, "large lots, ample area for parking and good landscaping" which would lend "a park-like aspect."

Because the land is on a hillside, Manin added, plans call for grading each of the eight lots as an individual "pad," to enhance the area and preserve views.

Drawings submitted to the commission show a landscaped buffer strip between the proposed buildings and San Fernando Way, the other side of which is lined with homes.

The east side of the property adjoins land now occupied by a medical-dental building and Hope Lutheran Church, as well as frontage on Sullivan Avenue.

The plans presented by Manin include a timetable for development—required by city zoning ordinance—which calls for completion of all grading by June 1968. The convalescent hospital would be built, landscaped and ready for patients a year later, and the remaining seven lots would be occupied by June 1970.

Planning commissioners continued the hearing on the zoning change Papazian has requested until their May 10 meeting, to give themselves and Planning Director Edward Lawson time to become more familiar with the plans.

"We want to work closely with you and your staff," Commission Chairman Richard Dwyer told Manin, "but we don't want to rush into this."

In addition to the mechanics of changing the zoning to planned development from the present single-family residential, Lawson will have to be certain that the detailed proposals submitted by the developers meet requirements of the city ordinance, a particularly involved process since "P-D" zoning has never been used before.

Expressing his enthusiasm for the project, Dwyer nevertheless said that he and his fellow commissioners plan to move slowly and cautiously, "to be sure this is done right."

'Meet-Confer' Policy Study At Laguna

Trustees of the Laguna Salada Union School District last week reviewed proposed policy statement governing employe-employer relations.

Drawn up by a special committee to satisfy requirements of Assembly Bill 1474 passed last year by the legislature, the new policy deals with access to the board of trustees by individual teachers and representatives of teacher organizations.

Unlike many districts faced with squabbles between discordant teacher groups, Laguna Salada has only one representative body—the Laguna Salada Education Association.

Under the policy statement, the association may establish a panel to "meet and confer" with trustees on employment or educational matters.

In the event that other employe groups are formed, provision is made for a negotiating council, which would be composed of representatives of each group.

In other action, the board heard a summary of progress on the district's noon-time supervision program, which went into effect on an experimental basis at three schools April 18.

An evaluation committee is presently holding meetings, trustees were told, and is to make a final report on the program's success on June 14.

Committee Aides Named

The newly formed Daly City-Colma Kiwanis Club has appointed committee chairmen. They are:

Bill Titus, boys and girls work; Guido Barragan, agriculture and conservation and key clubs and Circle K; Mike McDonald, vocational guidance; Robert Brodsky, public and business affairs; Ed Bucher, achievement; Edgar Shawlee, finance and membership development; Al Urbanus, house and reception; Don Waite, inter-club relations; Paul Coan, Kiwanis education and attendance and laws and regulations, and Ray Welch, programs and music.

The club meets at 12:15 p.m. each Tuesday at Toto's Restaurant in Daly City.

STEREO STOLEN

Richard Kastell of 1328 El Camino Real, South San Francisco, reported to Daly City police last week that a stereo set had been stolen from his car, parked in front of 455 Allen Street in Daly City.

D.C. Market Is Held Up Once Again

A 24-hour supermarket in Daly City was held up again by a bandit early Thursday morning.

The robber fled from the Mayfair Market at 2350 Junipero Serra Boulevard with an estimated $250 to $300, police said.

The market has been the target of bandits on several occasions during the past two years.

The holdup Thursday took plce about 4:45 a.m. when there were only three employes and one customer in the store, investigators said.

One of the employes, Thomas Hughes, 56, of San Francisco, said the bandit walked up to his checkout counter with a bag of groceries.

After the groceries were checked out, the bandit brandished a small revolver and ordered Hughes to put cash register money into a market shopping bag, according to Patrolman Barry Langberg.

The bandit then took the cash, his bag of groceries and fled.

D.C. Firemen 'Visit' Police

Daly City firemen paid an unexpected call on Daly City police Thursday morning.

A police car, parked next to headquarters, was smouldering.

Firemen found a rear seat burning. They blamed faulty wiring under the seat.

BATTERY STOLEN

Maria Melero of 134 Santa Barbara Avenue, Daly City, reported to police last week that a battery had been stolen from her auto.

Four Cyclists Enter Pleas In D.C. Riot

"Not guilty," said four motorcyclists in North County Judicial District Municipal Court last week as they were accused of battery of a police officer during a wake last Thursday night in Daly City for a Hells Angel rider.

Lewis Roseberry, a member of the Satan's Slaves club of San Bernardino; Charles Lysaught from Sacramento; Ray Hutchens from Oakland, and Kenneth Krake, a Hells Angel from Redwood City, were represented by court-appointed Attorney George Corey.

Corey asked for a reduction in the $10,000 cash bail under which the four had been held, and for a perliminary hearing.

He reduced bail on Hutchens and Krake to $5,000 cash or $10,000 property bond.

The motion for reducing bail on Lysaught and Roseberry was taken under submission by the judge.

Four other motorcyclists arrested during the melee have pleaded not guilty to misdemeanor charges of disturbing the peace, participating in a riot, failure to disperse, and being drunken and disorderly.

They have posted bail of $2,750 bail each, and are to appear for jury trials May 11.

Roseberry, Lysaught, Krake, and Hutchens are also accused of the lesser charges in addition to the charge of battery of a police officer. All are being held in county jail.

WINDOW BROKEN

Joseph J. Cosgrove of 76 East gate Avenue, Daly City, reported to police last week that someone had fired a BB through a front window.

The Profs Should Go Fly Piccolo

A SMALL GROUP of second-level intellectual clackers has been crying "nobody loves us, nobody understands us, nobody wants us" for so long in America (their lament has been heard without interruption since the late Adlai Stevenson hatched his egghead endorsement in 1952) that the public now becomes downright defensive when anyone suggests that it is not as receptive as it might be on the higher wave lengths.

The people have been intimidated into supplication before the altar of imagined intellect. They stand dumb while self-anointed specialists chatter in exotic tongues about everything from education to plumbing.

Better to suffer their incomprehensible excesses than to question, better to tolerate the insults in bovine silence than slow the march toward some as yet unperceived good.

AN EXAMPLE of this sort of Socratic gamesmanship occurred the other day, when 70 guardians of public culture signed their names to a letter to the President of the United States in which they had the temerity to suggest that Johnson replace Meredith Willson as a member of the National Council of Humanities.

Said the good professors of college music:

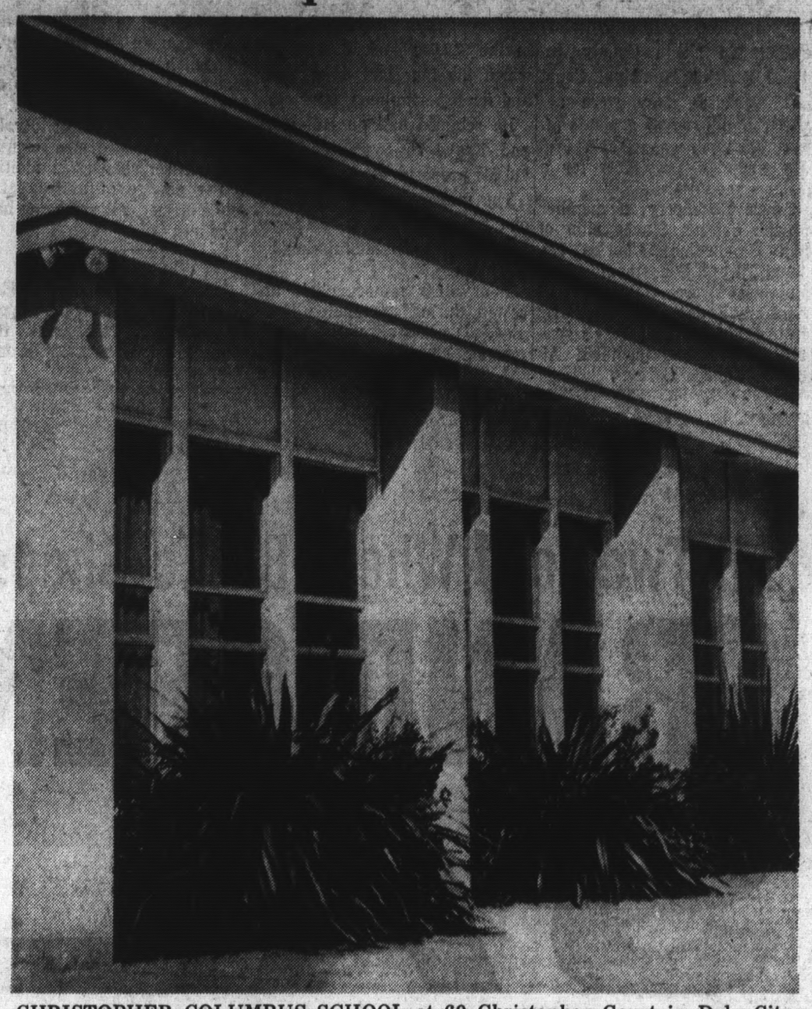
"Mr. Willson's extensive experience in the world of commercial entertainment in no way qualifies him to advise the chairman of the humanities council or to review applications for financial support of projects of the kind clearly envisioned by the framers of the act."

Willson as everyone knows, wrote a — ugh — popular Broadway musical, "The Music Man," did much work on radio, and passed his time at "enterprises designed to make money." How could such a man even understand what Congress meant when it asked the council to help to promote "the nation's high quality as a leader in the realm of ideas and of the spirit?"

THE JOB DEMANDS quite a different sort of man, a man of sensitivity, a man who appreciates the finer things in life, a man who might, perhaps, be teaching in the music department of some university.

It is not necessary to hold Willson in any particular affection or to point out that he has written several symphonies and is a flutist of distinction; and it is not necessary to remember that the likes of Strauss, Lahar, Verdi, and Offenbach wrote music that was not only artistically satisfying but financially rewarding, to succumb to the temptation to tell those professors to go fly a piccolo.

Christopher Columbus School



CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS SCHOOL at 60 Christopher Court in Daly City opened in 1961 with an enrollment of 435 students. Today, the enrollment totals 337 students. The school has 21 rooms and houses grades kindergarten through sixth as well as classes for the educable mentally retarded and the blind. The school is one of 19 in the Jefferson Elementary School District. Robert Abbey has been the principal since it opened. (Post-Times Photo)

Our Sophisticated Calif. Electorate

Don Miller

VOTER REGISTRATION totals and a breakdown between Democrats and Republicans in the North County were released by the county last week and about the only thing of note is the fact that the donkey still has a comfortable lead over the elephant.

The registered Democrats lead the registered Republicans by a 2½ to 1 margin.

But that doesn't mean very much in California, as a look at voting trends over the past couple of decades will indicate. In fact, it's becoming increasingly apparent that folks in this state like to be identified with the Democratic Party when it comes time to register but when the hour of truth rolls around, they often vote Republican.

Some recent examples of this are George Murphy's victory over Pierre Salinger in the 1964 Senate race and Richard Nixon's win in California (albeit a squeaker) over John F. Kennedy in 1960.

Currently, we have Merwin Field's California Poll showing that Democrat Governor Brown would probably lose out to Republican George Christopher if the gubernatorial election were held today.

And this despite a more than 2-1 Democratic advantage over the Republicans in voter registration.

The paradox can be attributed to what we like to think is a high degree of sophistication on the part of the California voter. He casts his ballot for the man rather than the party.

The old bromide of Eastern politics that says if you put a strong man on top of the ticket, the rest of the ticket will follow along, has become invalid in the West.

This probably was never more clearly the case than in Murphy's shellacking of Salinger, despite President Johnson's runaway victory over Barry Goldwater the same year.

THE OUTCOME of the preliminary judging in the annual Miss Daly City contest in Westmoor's Little Theatre last week must have tickled the odds of inveterate gamblers—particularly the poker players.

For the judges, as one of them quipped later, came up with a full house as their choices — two blondes and three brunettes. The blondes are Pat Hassman and Judy Giles and the dark-haired beauties are Pat DeBernardi, Vivian Rieger, and Madelyn Martinelli.

The judges drew 15 cards and there were only three blondes in the deck. So the chances of a full house, if you want to look at it from strictly a card player's viewpoint, were on the slim side.

As usual, the gentlemen who had to do the choosing couldn't agree. They came to a meeting of minds on two girls in short order. But because they couldn't resolve their differences over the other three for a while, they almost named six finalists instead of five—which would have been an unprecedented development.

Each of the five judges, by the way, lives in, has his business in, or went to school in the older part of Daly City (east of Junipero Serra Boulevard), yet only one of the five girls they chose attends Jefferson High School in the city's older section.

Just goes to show you that the whole judging business was based strictly on curves and personality.

The well-founded suspicion that Councilman Mickey DeBernardi is an avid, yea devout, trout fisherman was solidly confirmed by the preliminary judging program.

His daughter was among the 15 candidates but he wasn't present. Her father, Pat DeBernardi said, was off in the hinterlands for the opening of the trout season.

However, the betting is that come the finals, Councilman and Fisherman DeBernardi won't be anywhere near a fishing pole. He'll be right there in the front ranks of the audience, rooting for his daughter.

POST PHOTOGRAPHER BILL KOSKA is one Daly City resident who probably won't forget the opening festivities last week of the Jefferson Elementary School District's 100th birthday long after the year-long birthday party ends.

He climbed up into the belfry at Jefferson School on Alemany Street to get a belfry-eye view of the start of the birthday celebration in front of the school and just as he was focusing his camera, the bell rang.

That is, the large cast iron bell right in the belfry, practically next to his ear. It hadn't been rung in a couple of decades. But Bill is convinced he'll be hearing it in his sleep for a couple more.

The bell was rung by a belfry team comprising District Trustee George Perry and Marie Traynor, first principal of Jefferson School, to launch the birthday party.

They didn't know Bill was up above. But as he observed later, he sure knew somebody was down below.

The bell, incidentally, sounded like somebody dropping a stone into an iron pot. As a maintenance man pointed out, an accumulation of rust over 20 years had muffled the true sound.

Just as well. If the thing had been working right, we'd probably be minus a photographer today.

AND JUST to show you that things aren't all grim and unsmiling at that bastion of the law—Daly City police headquarters—consider this message on the daily police log the other day:

"The police teletype will be off for approximately one hour at 7 a.m. Monday. The telephone company is going to upgrade the teletype speed to 75 words per minute."

As Sgt. Tom Culley put it: "Now all we have to do is try to find someone who can type 75 words per minute."

Quality of Furs May Vary Widely

Lorene Beasley

THE FINEST ranch-bred and wild mink in the world are now being produced in the United States and Canada. Nature controls the quality, color and thickness of the wild mink.

A pelt secured in the cold season, when the animal is at its hardiest will be stronger and more luxurious. Lustre is the sign of a healthy skin which, besides being beautiful, will give longer wear.

The color, depth and quality of ranch mink is controlled by the breeder who keeps careful records on each animal and breeds from his finest stock.

Contrary to popular belief, ranch-bred mink is as luxuriant and long-wearing as wild mink and, in addition, is available in exquisite colors.

Leipsig was for many centuries the center of fur dyeing. Today, American ingenuity has made it possible for the many lovely and delicate new colorings in furs. Normally dark furs may be bleached without harming the fur and dyed white or pastel colors.

THE EVALUATION of furs is a job for an expert as it requires much study and actual handling.

Because it is difficult for the average person to judge good furs, the Federal Trade Commission has set up standard rules concerning the labeling and advertising of furs.

The dealer must state the true name of each piece; its country of origin, whether it's dyed, pieced, worn or used.

Even with this protection, it is possible for the consumer to be sold inferior and overpriced furs.

A fur pelt passes through many skilled hands from trapper to the finished garment hanging in the shop. Present day oils give the skins greater flexibility and act as waterproofing as well as preservatives.

The fur artisan is proud of his work and the cutter, the designer and the nailer go through many intricate processes before a garment is finished.

THE TWO SIDES of a fur are equally important in the quality of a fur piece. A reliable furrier will be responsible for the leather side of his merchandise which should be white and soft and the thousands of fine pieces of skins sewed in perfect symmetry.

Right side out, the leather that is thick and coarse will not be apparent at the time of purchase and only time and wear will tell why the garment was purchased much cheaper than a similar looking coat in a reputable fur store.

The skins of certain furs, like mink and muskrat, are cut into strips or "let-out" for easier manipulation.

This painstaking process where each skin is cut into diagonal strips the length of the skin and then let down to a certain amount until the skin becomes the desired length makes the fur garment light and comfortable and does not affect the durability of the skin.

Each skin is "let-out" and sewn to make it narrower and longer. It is sewn into the shape of a pattern and "nailed" so that the garment will hold its shape. The sections are then joined, lined and glazed. A finished coat of good pelts is a masterpiece of lights and shadows.

SKINS ARE split precisely in the center of the stripe in the "split" method. In this manner, the best of the sides of the skins are used which greatly reduces the number of skins necessary for a fur piece.

The split skins, when worked into a stole, look like the more expensive minks with the exception that the dark stripe appears at the bottom of the row of skins instead of in the middle of each row.

Only the backs of mink skins are used in expensive coats, stoles or jackets. Mink paw, mink side, mink gill or pieced mink are sections of the mink pelts not used in the costlier garments. This does not mean that they are not superior quality skins, and garments made up of such sections are good looking and long wearing.

The Marquee

Clairvoyant Prediction

Barbara Bladen

"THERE WERE so many names on our front door, it looked like a lawyer's office," Marilyn Michaels explained of her childhood in New York.

The star of the touring company of "Funny Girl" in San Francisco is the daughter of Harold Sternberg, a basso-profundo with the Metropolitan Opera for 27 years and Fraydele Oysher, a former star of the Yiddish Theater.

She took the name of Michaels because it's her 16-year-old brother's name. Her uncle was the famous Cantor Moishe Oysher, who died eight years ago.

The 23-year-old singer-mimic-dancer-actress (you name it, she can do it) came as close to being born in a trunk as any performer can brag. She was singing with her mother at the Yiddish Theater at the age of seven. By the time she was 15, she was sneaking downtown to professional auditions after school.

ON ONE OF these excursions, she predicted her own fantastic success.

"There was an open call for girls to try out for 'Gypsy.' I got up on the stage with all those real stacked girls and suddenly a voice from the back of the theater yelled. 'Hey, you in the red sweater.' I looked up and down the line and realized it was me. I stepped forward and he shouted, 'Out.' "

As she stalked off the stage, she turned and shouted back, "Some day I'll be the star of a Jule Styne show." And now she is. But then she always knew she would.

"My parents wanted me to have a normal childhood. I told them, forget it. I want to be in show business. I've really been lucky. I signed an RCA recording contract when I was 17 and did my nightclub act in some of the biggest rooms before I was even known."

FOLLOWING GRADUATION from Music and Art High School in New York City where she was an art major, she appeared first on Rudy Vallee's summertime On Broadway Tonight television show. She did impersonations of Ethel Merman, Connie Francis, Barbra Streisand, and Theresa Brewer. The Streisand bit got her a lot of attention and Ed Sullivan asked her to be in his show at Harrah's, Lake Tahoe.

He subsequently signed her for six regulr television shows. She followed that with "Hullabaloo," Johnny Carson Show, Sammy Davis Jr. show and the Jackie Gleason show. That's pretty fancy company for a young newcomer.

"I never minded performing in nightclubs. The drinking and the hecklers don't bother me. I just love the intimacy."

When producer Ray Stark asked to sign her to a contract for Seven Arts Company, she was advised to say no. She did not understudy Barbra, as many people think. That was Lanie Kazan. But she did sign to do the road company.

"I took the 'Funny Girl' part on the basis that I would not do a Streisand imitation. That I could play Fanny Brice as I saw her. I did plenty of research and I think I have a style all my own. Let's face it, I'm Jewish, so's Barbra, so was Fanny. We're all New Yorkers and there is a slight facial resemblance. So it's only natural that people will compre us. But now is important that I do my next role as someone completely different."

Houses, Gardens Without Parallel

Samuel Chandler

"CALIFORNIA, the Golden State — between the Sierras, the desert, and the Pacific —has for 60 years produced houses and gardens without parallel."

Thus begins the preface of Herbert Wisskamp's new book, "Beautiful Homes and Gardens in California." To one 'who is sick of hearing about the blight and the corrosion that is supposed to be enveloping California, this is a refreshing book.

California, the editor states, has for 60 years produced houses and gardens without parallel. As if to prove his point he presents a discussion of the artistry of 29 persons — some architects, some landscape designers.

Each article is accompanied by photographs and design plans. These people, he contends, have helped to find in California architecture the forms of a new environment, of a freer way of life, of a new totality of garden and house.

ONE OF these people, Ralphael Soriano of Tiburon, is especially noted for the beauty and the functional design of his all-steel homes. In the Bay Area, these may be seen in the Eichler developments in Palo Alto and elsewhere on the Peninsula.

Soriano's all-steel homes come fully fabricated — steel frames, glass panels, plywood and plastic fixtures — and may be erected over a concrete floor in one day. The color schemes of the interiors are designed to add a note of serenity as well as beauty.

Charles Eames, the man who in 1944 designed molded plywood furniture, is included in the book because his designs without precedent or compromise establish his rank among the innovators whose creations inhance the beauty that nature placed in California.

ANOTHER included is Pierre Koenig who was born in San Francisco. His homes in the Hollywood Hills accentuate the working zone of a house and the correlation of the house and the garden into one living area. Of special note are his luminescent ceilings and cabinets that hang above the eye level so the view of the garden and the countryside is unhampered.

Represented as an example of great beauty are homes created by Frank Lloyd Wright in Carmel by the Sea. That erected for Mrs. Clinton Walker in 1954 is called a house of almost paradoxical perfection.

The work of San Francisco planner Lawrence Halprin has ranged from Israel to Canada and from Texas to Germany. When he takes a contract to design a garden he insists that he be allowed to supervise while the work is in progress.

He insists that gardens must fit into the landscape in which they appear. "I do not design gardens to look natural, but for people in them to feel natural." His work can be found in Greenbrae, Orinda, San Francisco, and other places.

IN CHARACTERIZING some of California's residential architecture, the editor of "Beautiful Homes and Gardens in California" writes that it "is rich in houses that grow up almost as part of the site." Sometimes they are houses that "are lovingly fitted into lots that are hardly touched."

To end his preface Weisskamp asks the question, "Will it (the interplay of architecture, gardens and landscape) be the trend of the world tomorrow?"

Officers Remember Photo, Daly City Man Arrested

The suspect is Raymond L. Purvis, 31, of 1525 Sullivan Avenue.

Purvis had been sought by Caribou City, Idaho, authorities on the bad check charges. The amount involved, they said, was sufficient to classify the case as a felony.

Patrolmen James Van Pelt and John Van Otten went to Purvis' home to make the arrest. Purvis was out and his wife answered the door, the officers said.

While they were questioning Mrs. Purvis, Van Pelt inquired whether a wall photograph was that of her husband. The wife said it was.

The officers left and about 15 minutes later, Van Pelt, recalling the photograph, recognized Purvis walking near Mission Street and Citrus Avenue. He was arrested there.

The suspect was held in lieu of $5,500 bail.

$1,200,000 Suit Filed In Accident

A $1,200,000 suit for damages was filed in Superior Court Friday on behalf of a South San Francisco mother of five who lost three fingers and part of the thumb of her right hand in a factory accident.

The suit, filed for Mrs. Lillian I. Hefner, 48 San Felipe Avenue by attorney Alfred L. Young, alleges that the defendant Blow-O-Matic Inc., was negligent in not providing adequate safety guards for the machine shw eas operating.

According to the complaint, Mrs. Hefner was working at a device called a blow molding machine at the Flexible Plastics Corp. plant at 132 South Maple Avenue, South San Francisco, at the time of the accident.

Young said the jaws of the machine, which makes plastic bottles, clamped down on her right hand with 3,800 pounds of pressure, crushing the hand and amputating tne fingers.

Mrs. Hefner asks $1,000,000 for her injuries and for the anxiety and mental anguish caused by the accident.

Oceana Boy Is Named To Church Post

Steele Spengler, of Pacifica, an Oceana High School senior, has been elected the new president of the Golden Gate Conference of Luther League at a convention held in Cupertino.

He is a member of Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Pacifica, and outgoing president of the local league. He received leadership training at California Lutheran College in Thousand Oaks, and will return there in June for the Conference Officer's Roundup.

He has represented his local church at conferences in Detroit, Arizona, Santa Rosa and Long Beach. The Golden Gate Conference extends north to Eureka and south to Salinas, involving 42 churches and over 1,000 teen-agers. Pastor counsellors of the Golden Gate Conference are Rev. George Johnson of Bethlehem in Pacifica and Rev. George Miner, Our Savior's, in East Palo Alto.

Health Center Bids Received

Low bidder for construction of additions and alterations to the North County Health Center in South San Francisco was Sorenson and Marsh Inc. of San Mateo, with a bid of $121,000.

Henry Tarratt, county building director, had estimated the cost of adding 6,640 to the building at $95,000.

D.C. Youngster Hurt in Fall

A two-year-old Daly City girl suffered multiple bruises when she fell down a flight of back stairs in her home Friday.

The youngster, Tracy Hyker, of 101 Los Banos Avenue, was treated at Mary's Help Hospital and discharged.

Berry Swirl Angel Roll for Parties

The lure of pastel-iced petits fours, towering tortes and fruit pies on display in a pastry shop window is universal. Few of us can withstand the mouth-watering impulse to plunge inside and order one of everything in sight. But wait! You can be your own pastry chef right at home with the help of today's cake mixes, pie crust mixes and canned fruit pie fillings plus your own ingenuity. This Berry Swirl Angel Roll is just one example of a party-pretty dessert made from packaged cooks' helpers. It's a dream of a cake, so attractive it decorates the table as well as pleasing the palate — a creation from your own bake shop.

Berry-Swirl Angel Roll

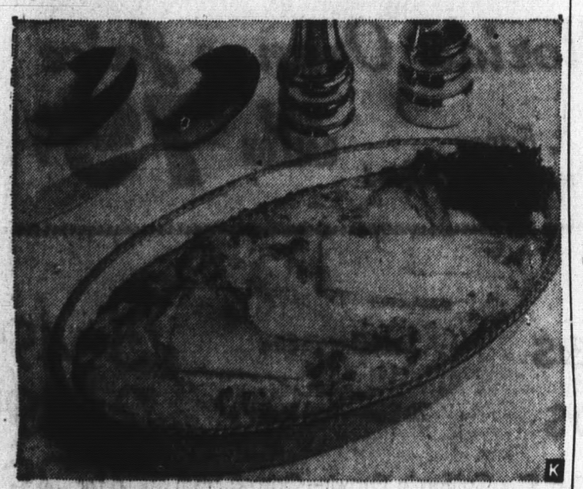
1 package raspberry swirl angel food cake mix
2 cups heavy cream, whipped
1 No. 2 can (2 cups) strawberry pie filling
Bake: 350° oven Yield: 2 angel rolls

Line the bottom of a 15x10-inch jelly roll pan with waxed paper. Prepare angel food batter as directed on package. Turn ⅓ of the batter into pan; spread evenly to corners. Bake at 350° for 20-25 minutes until golden brown. Remove from oven; cool for 10 to 20 minutes. Loosen edges of cake and invert on a tea towel dusted with confectioners' sugar. Remove waxed paper; roll cake up in towel. Cool completely in towel.

Repeat the above directions with the remaining batter to make the second angel roll.

Beat heavy cream until thickened. Fold pie filling into whipped cream. Unroll cooled cakes. Spread half of cream filling on each cake to within one-half inch of one end. Roll again toward uncovered end. Chill until served. (One roll may be frozen for later use.)

Instant Flour Will Take Out the Panic



Salmon Sandwich Puff tastes more like a party than a penance. It combines bread, milk, egg, cheese and canned salmon in an easy-to-make Lenten recipe.

Canned salmon is one fish in convenient form that is so versatile it can be included often in Lenten menus. Its delicate color and flavor, its fine flaky texture combines beautifully in soups and sauces and with almost any manner of vegetable, potatoes, rice, pasta—even bread.

A good hearty dish, combining salmon and bread, is Salmon Sandwich Puff. It's easy to make and serve, and answers that perennial question, "What's new for dinner?" anytime of the year.

You might serve it solo for lunch, or team it with a cup of hot tomato soup and a crisp vegetable salad for dinner. It's more glamorous than a sandwich, and it's a hot meal rather than a cold one—a good idea this early Lent.

SALMON SANDWICH PUFF

6 slices bread, trimmed and cut into triangles
7¾-ounce can salmon
¾ cup shredded cheese
3 eggs, lightly beaten
¼ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon paprika
dash cayenne
1 teaspoon minced onion
1½ cups milk

Line buttered 1½-quart baking dish with half the bread. Drain salmon, reserving liquid. Flake salmon. Sprinkle salmon and cheese over bread and top with remaining bread triangles.

Combine eggs, salt, paprika, cayenne, onion, milk and salmon liquid. Pour over ingredients in dish and let stand for 30 minutes. Bake in preheated 350°F. oven, for 1 hour, or until browned and puffed. Serves 4.

More American Families Eat Out

A typical family of four dines well in comfortable surroundings for little more than it costs to eat at home.

Chicago, Ill. — Today more American families eat out and with more frequency than at any time in our history, according to Donald Greenaway, executive vice president of the National Restaurant Association. He cited the fact that about 16 billion away from home meals will be served during the year.

"The food service industry," said Greenaway, "now gears itself, wherever possible, to attracting family units by offering sensible pricing, special menus and various service features to make dining out relaxing and pleasant even when youngsters are tiny. That's why today you see so many families eating in attractive dining rooms, comfortable cafeterias, and convenient drive-ins and coffee shops. Individual tastes and whims are catered to with diversified menus and specialties providing pleasure and satisfaction to each member of the group."

Greenaway noted that if restaurant operators confined their efforts to attracting only those who have no choice except to eat out, such as business people and travelers, the food service industry wouldn't be the $30 billion business it is today.

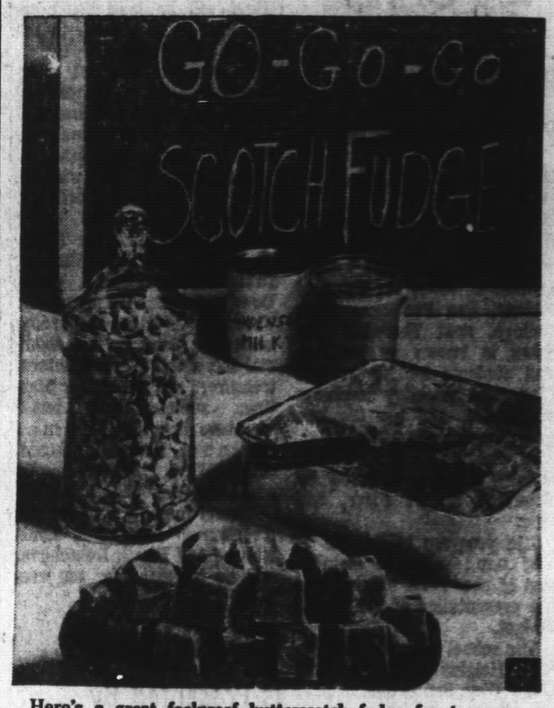
Teen Scotch Fudge A Go-Go Delight



Here's a great foolproof butterscotch fudge for teeners — and they can do it themselves, Mom. There's no measuring (ingredients go straight from containers to cookery with nary a measuring cup). There's no fancy work with candy thermometers. There are only three ingredients in Go-Go-Go Scotch Fudge and they all work to the best advantage. The first ingredient, butterscotch flavored morsels, blends with the second ingredient, peanut butter, to create a wonderfully rich and different flavor big and little kids will go for. Sweetened condensed milk, the third ingredient, gives the fudge a smooth, creamy texture that won't get grainy.

Go-Go-Go Scotch Fudge

- 2 6-ounce packages (2 cups) butterscotch flavored morsels
- 1 12-ounce jar (1¼ cups) peanut butter
- 1 14-ounce can (1¼ cups) sweetened condensed milk

Combine butterscotch morsels and peanut butter in top of double boiler. Place over hot (not boiling) water; stir until butterscotch melts and mixture is smooth. Remove from water. Add sweetened condensed milk; stir until well blended. Turn into foil-lined 8-inch square pan. Chill until firm. Cut in 1-inch squares. Store in covered container.
YIELD: 64 pieces.

Puttery Apple Pancake Topping

Spring is here. It is daffodil and tulip time. Time to celebrate the occasion with a Sunday brunch or supper. Or maybe it is your turn to entertain for luncheon.

What can be served that is simply prepared, hearty enough to pacify everyone's hunger and still be really good to eat? Why not choose favorite eats like waffles, French toast or pancakes, forget the traditional syrup topping and lather them with Buttery Apple Topping? This flavorsome answer to small meal problems consists of two delicious ingredients — apple butter and butter — both tops in flavor and quality. For the organized homemaker, these family staples can be blended to a golden smoothness hours before serving time, then just heated until meltingly warm and creamy.

Buttery Apple Topping
Yield — 1¼ Cups

- ½ cup butter or margarine
- ¾ cup apple butter
- French toast, pancakes or waffles

Cream butter until fluffy; beat in apple butter. Refrigerate mixture until serving time. At serving time, heat desired amount of topping over low heat until warmed and well blended. Serve with French toast, pancakes or waffles.

Frisky Salad

Spring meals are always bright and buoyant with a crisp salad of western iceberg lettuce. Serve iceberg wedges with fresh or canned pineapple spears and a sprightly dressing of real mayonnaise and orange marmalade.

Salad Sensation

Marinate sliced leek or green onion and cooked carrot in corn oil and vinegar dressing, then toss with torn pieces of snappy-crisp western iceberg lettuce. Sprinkle grated Parmesan cheese over the top.

P-TA Events

Pacific Heights P-TA to Sponsor Professor's Talk

The Pacific Heights Elementary School P-TA of San Bruno will sponsor a talk by Dr. Lawrence Swan, professor of biology, San Francisco State College, next Thursday. Dr. Swan is known by teachers and students for his Science Classroom weekday mornings on KQED, and his previous program, Science Attic.

In addition, the Pacific Heights Chorus, directed by Principal Robert Fizer, will sing.

The program will begin at 7:30 p.m., with the installation of new P-TA officers and the presentation of the 1966-67 budget.

The school is located on Pacific Heights Boulevard and Colby Way, San Bruno.

San Andreas To Hold Final Meet

The San Andreas P-TA will hold its last meeting for the 1965-66 school term Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the multi-use room of the school.

The main part of the program will be centered around the Boy's Club of America. Slides and films about the club will be shown. The public is invited..

The P-TA held a rag drive May 16-18. Each student will be given a paper bag to fill with old rags and return to the school. A pickup of rags may be arranged by calling Mrs. Leroy Filice at 355-4473, Mrs. Rodny Millard, 755-2097 or Mrs. Betty Suitomi, 756-0292.

Proceeds will be used for P-TA projects during the 1966-67 term.

Jefferson Elects 1966-67 Officers

The Jefferson High School P-TA has elected these officers for 1966-67:

Mrs. Henry Monares, president; Mrs. Thomas Lewis, vice president; Ada Wood, honorary vice president; Mrs. Lawrence Sarrubi, secretary; Thomas Lewin, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Irene Long, treasurer; Mrs. Allen Rigler, historian; George Engle, auditor, and Allen Rigler, parliamentarian.

The P-TA will meet at 8 p.m. tomorrow in Room 507 of the school.

Jeff Elementary Installs Officers

The newly elected officers of the Jefferson Elementary School P-TA were installed recently.

Peter Hansen, principal of Woodrow Wilson School was invited to act as installing officer.

President Mrs. Juanita Perada; Vice President Mrs. Maureen Taylor; Honorary Vice President Tom Notaro (principal); Rec. Secretary Mrs. Harrit Mierly; Corr. Secretary Mrs. Clara Kratochvil; Treasurer Mrs. Vernalee Howard; Auditor Mrs. Patricia Cravi-otto; Historian Mrs. Mary Jane Steele.

Pacific Manor Plans Meeting

The Pacific Manor P-TA will meet at 8 tomorrow in the multi-use room. Mrs. Paul Doyie, president, will preside.

Helen Cassidy, assistant manager of the Golden Gate Chapter of Red Cross, will be the guest speaker. Her topic will be "What's Doing at Pacifica's Red Cross."

Refreshments will be served after the meeting.

Washington Unit Will View Film

The next unit meeting of the George Washington P-TA will be held at 8 p.m. today in the multi-use room of the school A program, "Take Good Care of Yourself," will be given. A film, "Teaching Johnnp to Swim," will be shown.

Jeff Unit Meets

The Jefferson High School P-TA will meet at 8 tomorrow night in Room 507 of the school according to Mrs. Henry Monares, publicity chairman.

Riordan Guild Holds Last Meet

The final meeting of the school year for the Riordan Guild will be held on Tuesday evening at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Following the short business meeting, all members are invited to attend the installation and reception of new officers in Chaminade Hall.

Mrs. Thomas Gill will install the following officers, elected for the fall term: Mesdames William Essig, president; Vincent Murphy, first vice president; Victor Dowdle, second vice president; Theodore Martin, recording secretary; John Hayes, financial secretary; Mario Pantera, treasurer; and Alexander Martinez, auditor. New board members are: Mesdames Branum, Steve Ganduglia, Clifton West, Peter Ganduglia and Earl Cooney.

Alumni members, under the direction of Mesdames Louis Bottero and Frank Kelechava, will be hostesses for the evening.

'The Pied Piper' Is Presented By Lincoln Students

"The Pied Piper of Hamelin" has been presented at Abraham Lincoln School.

Third grade students in Room 8 produced and directed the play with minimum help from their teacher, Monica Robinson.

James Tomlinson played the title role with support of his classmates.

Some students were art consultants and produced background and props to add to the success of the play. Costumes were furnished by Mrs. Marvin Jensen.

Parents of class members and students from kindergarten, first, second and third grades at Abraham Lincoln School, applauded the performance.

Sisterhood To Seat Officers

The Sisterhood of Temple Judea will install officers at a meeting at 12:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Temple's Fellowship Hall. These officers will be installed:

Mrs. Ralph Bardoff, president; Mrs. Alvin Nadler, first vice president; Mrs. Fischel Cornfield, second vice president; Mrs. Nathan Siegel, third vice president; Mrs. Bertram Toor, treasurer; Mrs. Lee Bart, recording secretary; Mrs. Rebecca Waxman, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Sanford Heisler, financial secretary.

The installation ceremony will be conducted by Rabbi Herbert Morris.

P.A.P.A. Membership Meeting Scheduled

With its first successful season drawing to an end, the Pacifica Association of Performing Arts will hold a membership meeting at 8 p.m. today in the Laguna Salada School District offices.

A nominating committee headed by Mrs. Helen James will present its slate and the membership will elect new officers for the 1966-67 season.

New members are being sought and persons may phone Rod Linhares, 355-4465, for further information.

Sponsoring memberships or organizational memberships may be obtained for $10, active memberships for $1.

Los Pacificans Set Two Events

Los Pacificans have scheduled two events for coming weeks.

The group will take a trip through Sonoma and Santa Rosa Saturday. Points of interest will include a cheese factory, a winery tour and a visit to the Luther Burbank's home in Santa Rosa. Members of the South San Francisco Senior Citizens' group will join Los Pacificans on the trip.

On Saturday, May 21, Los Pacificans will hold a potluck dinner in the Oddstad Recreation Center. The dinner will be served from 7 to 8 p.m.

Mother-Daughter Meal at Pacifica

The Women's Mission Society of the First Baptist Church of Pacifica, 610 Edgemar Avenue, will hold its mother-daughter dinner at 7 p.m. Friday.

Prices are $1.25 for mothers and 75 cents for daughters.

There will be varied entertainment.

Art Guild of Pacifica Will Hold 'Spring Festival'

The fourth annual Spring Festival of the Arts, "Wonderful Spring," will be presented on Saturday and Sunday by the Art Guild of Pacifica. The grounds of the Sanchez Adobe Historical site in Linda Mar will come alive with a full slate of weekend activities and cultural presentations, including art exhibits, Art in Action, music, literature and films.

The Art Guild will put on display and sale the paintings and crafts of its many talented artists and will spotlight Guild members demonstrating Art in Action beginning at 1 p.m. each day.

Those participating in the featured demonstrations will be Belle Nau, Angel Stewart, Lucile Sutherlin and Otis Strong, oils; Peter Hegedus and Kurt Poehleman, watercolors; Robert Southworth and Luther Spraker, prints; Claire Drew, pastels; Liliane Natwick, Kaye Reinhertz and Larry Kempher, pottery; Roberta Ewald, textiles; Don Carlson marble sculpture.

On Saturday at 2 p.m. in the Sanchez Adobe building, artist Claire Drew will present her art films taken in Europe.

The Pacifica school children's art exhibit, sponsored by the AAUW, will be displayed on the Adobe fences, and awards will be given at various grade levels. The Friends of the Library will have tables full of books offered for sale, and a refreshment stand will be provided throughout the weekend.

This year's Spring Festival will feature a special musical treat during the performances of Pacifica's own "Pandemoniacs" — a rare and unusual Steel Band group, sponsored by the Pacific Association for the Performing Arts.

Franz Grissom, assistant leader of the Treasure Island Naval Band, will conduct the specially trained members of his family on these Puerto Rican imported "Pan" instruments; their concerts will be on Sunday afternoon at 1:30, 2:30 and 3:30.

The Spring Festival Art Exhibit is open to all artists; anyone wishing to enter may obtain information by calling Belle Nau at 359-2578 or Lillian Neathery at 359-3155.

The public is cordially invited to enjoy Mother's Day Weekend by attending the many lively and colorful events of "Wonderful Spring" between the hours of 10 a.m. and 6 p.m.

Spindrift Playhouse Will Perform 'Burning Bright'

The John Steinbeck production, "Burning Bright," a three-act drama, is scheduled by Pacifica's Spindrift Playhouse for May 27-28 and June 3-4.

The modern allegory, set in a circus tent, a farmhouse and a ship's cabin, uses the same four characters throughout. In each scene the theme of continuation of man's blood line through progeny is pronounced.

Sydney Clark, director, announced the cast as John K. Martin playing Friend Ed; Aubrey M. Lumley as Joe Saul; Craig Guenther as Victor; and Barbara Aubuchon as Mordeen.

Miss Aubuchon and Lumley appeared with Miss Clark in the Playhouse's first production, "No Exit," in January.

"Burning Bright" will be given at the Cultural Room of the new county library in Sharp Park. Tickets soon will go on public sale, limiting the audience to around 125 each evening, said Don Gentleman, house manager. Other staff members are Robert McGouldrick and Vera Perrier, property managers; Robert Southworth, wardrobe; Luther Spraker, program and tickets; John K. Martin, John Craig and Gentleman, scenery; Glenn Williams, lighting. Clinton Jennings will be in charge of sound effects, and Nathaniel Marks, publicity.

Nu Sigma Will Install Its Officers

Daly City's Nu Sigma Chapter recently held their election of officers at the home of Mrs. Albert Baccei.

The new slate of officers were voted on and the following ladies are awaiting their prospective jobs early in June.

President, Mrs. Paul Kiel; Vice President, Mrs. Frank Noonan; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Frank Greer; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Herbert Decker; Treasurer, Mrs. Bert Thomas; Extension Office, Mrs. Robzert Samuelsen; City Council Representative, Mrs. Frank Gallo.

Saturday, from 2 to 4 p.m. the installation of officers will be held at the home of Mrs. Nick Raisis at 2747 34th Ave., San Francisco.

Mrs. Richard Gallo, outgoing president, will be the installing officer. A tea will follow installation to honor the new officers and all the member's Mothers in observance of Mother's Day. Nu Sigma has honored their mothers annually with a tea on this special day.

Chorus and Choir Win 'Superior' Festival Ratings

The Decima Allen chorus and the Crestmoor Elementary choir received superior ratings at the California Music Educators' Annual Music Festival, at Washington High School, San Francisco.

The Allen Chorus was directed by Carol Bird with Sandra Dobbins as accompanist. Mrs. Dobbins directed the Crestmoor choir, with Diane York the accompanist.

The Allen program included: "So Clear Thine Eyes," "Scarlet Ribbons," "Dona Noble Pacem," "Drill, Ye Terriers."

The Crestmoor choir sang: "The Swing," "The Moon," "When Johnny Comes Marching Home," and "Old King Cole."

Last year both schools received superior ratings at Stanford and also were invited to the University of Pacific, Stockton, for command performance.

Library Friends Are Still Taking In Used Books

Books are still being accepted by the Pacifica Branch of the Friends of the Library for the annual book fair this weekend at the Sanchez Adobe, Linda Mar.

At 10 a.m., Saturday, used books will be on sale from five cents on up.

An "early bird" special will be the addition of many old records — some are collectors' items.

This is the last chance to clear bookcase, record shelf, and still benefit Pacifica.

Proceeds from the Book Fair are to be used for Community Cultural and Educational Programs.

Books may be left at the Sanchez branch library, Linda Mar; the Pacifica branch library, Sharp Park; the Kent Cleaners, 119 Manor Drive, Pacific Manor.

Visitacion Club To Seat Officers

The Church of the Visitacion Mothers' Club will install officers in the Parish Hall at 655 Sunnydale Avenue at 8 p.m., May 18.

The Rev. Lawrence J. Krause, pastor, will be the installing officer. Mrs. Anthony Geraldi is chairman of the installation

Officers elected to serve for the fall term of 1966 and the spring of 1967 are: Mrs. Theo-John Ghiorso, vice president Mrs. Roger Deeney, recording secretary; Mrs. James Voelker, treasurer; Mrs. Sue Ferratta, financial secretary, and Mrs. Jan Janigian, corresponding secretary.

Cancer Society To Continue Crusade

The American Cancer Society's "Tell your Neighbor" Cancer Crusade will continue for several more days in order to enable all volunteers to complete their rounds.

Some workers have found it necessary to make call-backs because not all of the people in their blocks were at home the first time the volunteer called.

The society is anxious for a 100 per cent distribution of the leaflets listing cancer's early warning signs and don't want anyone to be overlooked. Literature must be left at every home, regardless of whether or not a contribution is received.

Lively New Nugget Revue Makes Debut Thursday

ALLAN SHERMAN, the rotund comedian-singer, will be paired with THE BACK PORCH MAJORITY, seven razor-sharp delightful kids with a tremendous sound, in JOHN ASCUAGA'S NUGGETT Circus Room May 5 through May 18. Allan Sherman puts hilarious lyrics to widely known melodies and the result has zoomed him to the crest of the entertainment field. Also appearing in the lineup at the Nugget will be BERTHA and TINA, The DOROTHY DORBEN DANCERS AND SINGERS, with music by FOSTER EDWARD'S ORCHESTRA . . . Gourmet treats await you in all of the CRYSTAL BAY CLUB'S fine eateries, superbly prepared and served for your dining pleasure—Snack Bar, coffee shop, Salad Bar, Crystal dining room and the Steak House, two cocktail lounges; nightly entertainment and gaming. Open 24 hours a day, all at North Tahoe's elegant Crystal Bay Club.

ALL-STAR ENTERTAINMENT is currently being showcased at Luz Garcia's Sinaloa cantina on Powell Street six nights a week, Monday through Saturday. Headlining the show each evening are the multi-talented Los Roquet Duo, who have made numerous television appearances since their stay in San Francisco. Also spotlighted is the Dean Martin of Mexico, Victor Buelna; shapely singer and dancer Delia Martin; queen of the castanets, lovely Raquel Flores; Olga and Juan; Ginna, and Julio Acosta. One of the biggest and most varied entertainment packages in all of San Francisco, the Sinaloa also features a special "Two for the price of one" Mexican dinner. All you have to do is clip the advertisement in Bright Lights, present it to the waitress at the Sinaloa, and you receive one FREE Mexican dinner with the purchase of one Mexican dinner of equal value. All this, and a delightful floor show besides . . . David Morris really whooped it up at the birth of a daughter, last week: Hosted a group of pals to a dinner party at Lew Lehr's.

AN ANTIQUE GOLD and pale blue interior gives Ennio's, the unique new San Francisco restaurant serving specialties of Rome, a classic elegance found in Rome's most fashionable salons. Any mom would be thrilled on Mother's Day to enjoy the special Italian feast which will be served from 3 p.m. to 9 p.m. Owner-chef, Ennio de Angelis, who is a marquis, will prepare a special holiday dinner suitable for a queen. Better make early reservations in this intimate and different restaurant. . . . "All you can eat for $1.10." That's right! You can go back for seconds, thirds, or even fourths, if you care to, when dining at the King's Table in Redwood City. Of course, this price is for lunches only. But if you stop in at dinner time, the tab is $1.60 for the "All you can eat" feast. . . . The Changs, a spellbinding Chinese tumbling and acrobatic team, have audiences at the Cameo Club in Palo Alto sitting open-mouthed with their feats of precision balancing and tumbling. Topless Dorj Lane makes the temperature of the room rise.

PLANNING ON TAKING that special someone out for dinner and dancing tonight? You couldn't make a better choice than Fred and Jerry Rapp's Holiday Inn in South San Francisco. Food is superb, service is excellent, and Pianist Gary Long and his Trio play fine dance music. A reservation call to Claude Schroeder, dining room manager, will set you right for the fun-time of your life . . . The Cote D'Azur, one of the Peninsula's most talk-about gourmet French restaurants, is the dining mecca for countless stars of stage, screen, radio and television. The pianobar entertainment of Augusto Amador is also a big feature here . . . Opportunity will knock more than once at the Hilton Hotel May 6 and 7 when the University of California Extension stages a "Secretaries Forum" to explore new office practices and new ways of communication for secretaries who want to develop their business knowledge and become more effective members of the management teams with whom they work.

Westmoor Orientation Set For Tomorrow in Theater

Tomorrow night at 7:30 p.m. in Westmoor's Little Theater, both parents and incoming ninth graders will learn of new curricular offerings, attendance rules, student government and other pertinent information about Westmoor High, when the annual orientation program is presented.

Principal Glenn South, Assistant Principal - Guidance Margaret Riggs, Assistant Principal - Administration Clayton Kollmann and Director of Student Activities Richard Hart will discuss areas of interest and concern to parents and students at this May 5 meeting.

Elaborating on the Jefferson Union High School District booklet "About Your High School," Miss Riggs will discuss the fine arts, university, business, practical arts, and general courses of study. Two new course offerings open to freshmen, plastics and Italian, will be reviewed.

The co-curricular program, which includes athletics, clubs, and student government will be discussed by Hart. Activities of all the clubs, as well as new clubs such as the Future Business Leaders of America, will be presented.

Attendance rules and regulations, ranging from tardy cuts to unauthorized absences will be discussed by Kollmann. Since Kollmann's duties include student welfare as well as attendance, mention will be made of academic probation and Continuation School.

Parents, who would like individual assistance with their child's ninth grade program, are invited to participate in the programming sessions at Benjamin Franklin School May 11-15. Parents of children not attending Benjamin Franklin are requested to phone Westmoor for individual appointments.

Party Time at Colma School

STUDENTS AND TEACHERS from Colma School display costumes from various lands in the school's annual P-TA International Night. They are, left to right, standing: Mildred Caput, George Zavier, Reiko Yoshimura, Richard Laxamana, Shelly Fernandez, Byron Ogden and Esperanza Flores; seated on floor, Alice Saliver and Edna Saliver. Teen Clubs Plan a Trio Of Activities

The Daly City Recreation Department's junior teen clubs will feature a dance, a scavenger hunt, and a trip to Angel Island State Park as the weekend's activities.

The Imperials meet at the War Memorial Community Center on Friday evening for their monthly dance from 7 until 9 p.m. Admission price is 25 cents for members and 50 cents for guests.

Dress for the activity is school clothes; admission is 25 cents for club members, 50 cents for their guests.

On Saturday the Casualiers are off to Angel Island State Park for a day of picnicing and exploring. Cars will leave Colma School at 9 a.m. for Fisherand guests will "board ship" for the boat ride and picnic.

Return time will be approximately 5:30 p.m.

Members should bring a sack lunch and $1.75 to cover the cost of the boat trip and admission to the park. Guests will be charged $2.

EXTENDED LUBRICATION

Extended lubrication is again a feature of all Chevrolets for 1966. Recommended chassis lubrication is every 6,000 or six months and engine oil change each 6,000 miles or 60 days.

D.C. Youth Is Tendered Bid To Coast Guard Academy

Robert Brodie, a Bank of America and Daly City-Colma Chamber of Commerce award winner for science and mathematics at Westmoor High School, has been tendered an appointment to the U.S. Coast Guard Academy at New London, Conn.

The decision for appointment is based on academic achievement, leadership activities, competitive test scores, medical qualification, and an interview.

Unlike the other service academies, the Coast Guard does not appoint students through congressmen but selects them solely on qualificatiosn.

Brodie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Brodie of 43 Santa Elena Avenue, Daly City. His father is a retired commander in the Coast Guard.

Brodie has been active in varsity tennis, at Westmoor, consistently being one of the top men on his team.

Future Business Leader Honors for Terra Nova

Terra Nova's Future Business Leaders walked away with a lion's share of the honors at the recent FBLA state convention, when 33 Terra Novans attended the 17th annual event at the Claremont Hotel, Berkeley.

For the second straight year in a row in competition at the state level, Terra Nova students successfully matched skills with students from all over California.

Besides receiving many individual student awards, the Terra Nova chapters, for the third consecutive year, received the Gold Star Award, given to outstanding chapters.

The chapter also was awarded first place in total membership for northern California, third place for convention attendance (members attending, multiplied by miles traveled), second in the chapter activities report prepared by Carolyn Pierce, and second in the Jack Martin Award for the outstanding project, prepared by Sharon Bowen.

Among the individual award winners, Judy Howell scored a first-ever for Terra Nova by sweeping first place honors in the shorthand contest.

In the vocabulary competition, Neena Nocita placed second, while Eric Butler ranked third in the Our Future Business Leader contest.

Eric competed with five state officers, and, in so doing, eliminated the state president and the state reporter.

In parliamentary procedure team competition, Mary Ann Walsh and Carol Lowney placed third.

In competition for the most coveted chapter award, Marie Papadakis and Linda Schuyler placed first in the publicity book event. The award is given to the chapter receiving the most publicity during the year from local newspaper publications, and various school media.

One of the highlights of the convention was Terra Nova's domination of the public speaking contest. Barbara Thielen won first place and Kathy Sullivan, second. Barbara was asked to give her speech at the awards banquet and upon completion of her speech, received a standing ovation from the 450 convention participants.

Barbara now will compete with state winners at the national FBLA convention at New Orleans in June.

The Terra Nova chapter hopes to enlist the aid of local business in sponsoring Barbara and her chaperone.

In the election of new state officers, Karen Sharp was elected state vice president, and president of the Northern California section of FBLA.

A prelude to the convention was the receipt of a letter from the office of President Johnson commending Terra Nova's achievements in FBLA activities.

FBLA is a self-supporting school activity.

The club members, through candy sales, earned all money to pay for registration, meals, and hotel accommodations for the members attending the convention.

CSM Films Scenes From Ram Drama

Westmoor's Drama Department, filmed live by the College of San Matio's Radio and Television Department, presented two scenes from the play "Finian's Rainbow," the recent musical production presented by the Fine Arts Department.

A brief history of Westmoor's Drama Department was given by Robin Jackson, drama instructor. Jackson told of the present program and the future planning for the growing department in his brief resume.

The College of San Mateo's Television Department produces two live programs every night. The programs can be received by approximately 15,000 Bay Area viewers over KCSM, an ultra-high-frequency station.

The 15-minute sequence shown April 18 included a comedy routine with Randy Bloom and George Estacopio, a song, "How Are Things in Glocamora," by Cathy Jones and a duet "Devil Moon" with John Spenser and Cathy Jones.

Other schools, such as Crestmoor, also have been filmed by CSM's Television Department in their own studio.

Boys Club Campaign

A drive for funds with which to build a Pacifica Boys Club facility on a 3½-acre site donated by the Challenge Development, Inc. will be launched with a kick-off dinner for campaign workers Friday at the International Inn, South San Francisco.

Campaign Committee Chairman Howard R. Cuyler said the goal is $90,000 in a drive to end June 3. He added that the solicitations will be made on a three-year pledge program, with a cash percentage down.

"DENTAL HEALTH FACTS"

Small cavities in the teeth can be filled more easily and with less discomfort than large ones.

If decay is neglected it leads to infection and abscess formation. An infected tooth is a hazard to good health and often must be removed.

A tooth that has been lost should be replaced by an artificial one. If it is not, the other teeth will shift. This shifting may lead to more decay and to diseases of the gums.

Irregular placement of the teeth should be corrected for many reasons: To improve appearance, speech and the ability to chew food and to help prevent other dental diseases.

Regular dental treatment will help you to have teeth that are both healthy and attractive.

Have your dentist check for cavities and follow his recommendations if treatment is needed.

Dr. Campbell limits his practice to the making of dental plates, partial plates, removable bridges and extractions for some; however, he recommends that you see your dentist at least twice a year in order to help prolong the use of your natural teeth as even the beautiful modern dentures are not as efficient as healthy, natural teeth.

South S.F. Library Facility

NEW SOUTH San Francisco Public Library building has been formally declared completed by the City Council. Yet to be added to the $750,000 structure are finishing touches, including landscaping. This view shows the front of the building, located on West Orange Avenue, adjacent to California Golf Club. Not visible is emergency operating center in the basement, reached by ramp at rear or stairs on far side. Center would be used by city government in case of civil defense emergency. The library will be opened in late summer or fall.

New Plant Set In S.S.F. Park

Laura Scudder's, division of the Pet Milk Company, has become the twenty-second company to enter the Cabot, Cabot and Forbes Industrial Park in South San Francisco. The purchase of about an acre of ground on Cabot Road has been announced by John A. Mooney, president of the division.

A 13,000 square foot distribution warehouse for Laura Scudder's products will be built on the property in the near future.

Other companies already on Cabot Road include Riva Cocktail Mixes, Chemical Exhaust Fire Protection Company, Haber Doors, and Underwriters Salvage Company.

JAKET STOLEN

Audrey O'Connor of 4 Oakmont Drive, Daly City, reported to police that a boy's cloth jacket had been stolen from her garage.

County to Get Defender's Office

County Manager E. R. Stallings declared that creation of a public defender's office for San Mateo County is imminent.

"We have reached the point," he said, "where our expenses for legal counsel for indigents is costing as much as a public defender's office would, or maybe more."

Stallings said his office is making a study of the situation which should be completed soon. He said a public defender's office here is "inevitable."

Under the system now in use in San Mateo County, the courts appoint attorneys for all defendants who cannot afford to retain their own. Their fees are paid from county funds.

The County Bar Association, which has urged a public defender's office in the past but has never been able to persuade the County Board of Supervisors, is making still another study on the subject. Chairman James M. Dennis said one of the purposes of the study is to determine how large a staff the public defender's office should have. He noted that in Los Angeles, where there are 200 deputy district attorneys, there are the same number of deputies in the public defender's office. In Alameda County, the ratio is 25 to 18. Dennis said all counties who have public defenders have been requested to give their ratios for the purposes of the study.

The County Human Resources Commission approved a legal aid proposal submitted by the Law Enforcement Liaison Committee of South San Mateo County, its purpose being to help juveniles and young adults who get into trouble with the law, as well as to work with their families. The executive director said he felt the proposal would duplicate some of the work being done by the County Legal Aid Society

The proposal was approved for one year, however, on the motion of Dr. Julio Bortolazzo, president of College of San Mateo, who said he was not sure that creation of a public defender system is imminent.

'Bunny' Freed, No Charges

Charges against Judy Evelyn Thompson, 21, the San Bruno "bunny" arrested for allegedly possessing marijuana, were dropped last week in North County Judicial District Court.

Her husband, Harry, 28, pleaded guilty to possessing marijuana, and was bound over to Superior Court for sentencing.

The couple was arrested at their 430 San Antonio Avenue apartment, after their landlord told police he had found narcotic in their rooms while trying to evict them. Mrs. Thompson said she is employed at the San Francisco Playboy Club as a hostess.

S.S.F. Court Aide Shifted

William W. Larsen, who has been serving since September as an assistant city attorney in South San Francisco started work as a deputy on the staff of District Attorney Keith C. Sorenson.

Sorenson said Larsen's appointment is not effective until Monday and he won't go on the payroll until then, but he was so eager to get started in the new job that he reported for work.

Larsen, 25, lives at 105 Alta Loma Drive, South San Francisco, with his wife, Jacquelynn, a teacher at Buri-Buri School.

He is a graduate of Hastings Law School and was admitted to the bar in January.

Larsen earned a bachelor science degree in criminology at Fresno State College and served for a year after graduation on the Madera police force. While attending school, he was a member of the college police unit and worked his way up to the rank of lieutenant.

Sorenson said Larsen will be assigned to handle criminal cases in the Municipal Court in Redwood City.

Questions On Lunches Answered

Replies to parents' questions about menu items and meals in the Laguna Salada School District lunch program have been sent to parents by the district's Cafeteria Committee.

Here are some questions and answers:

Q. What is finger food?

A. These are foods that can be eaten with the fingers—carrot sticks, celery, bellpepper strips and cherry tomatoes.

Q. Why are potatoes served with cheese sandwiches and why not skimmed milk?

A. The U.S. Department of Agriculture sets the nutrional standards of lunches and these requirements must be met in order for the district to receive state reimbursement funds for its lunch program.

Q. How can low income families afford school lunches?

A. A special district tax provides money for free lunches for eligible children. Parents are advised to discuss this with school principals.

Girl Hurt In Accident

A ten-year-old Daly City girl was taken to Mary's Help Hospital for examination of a possible concussion Thursday when the auto she was riding in and another car collided on Sullivan Avenue near 87th Street in Daly City.

The girl, Debra Austin of 214 88th Street, was sent home after the examination had determined there were no injuries.

Drivers of the cars were identified as two apartment neighbors, Susan J. Contessa and Lawrence E. Jenkins, 29, both of 214 88th Street, Daly City.

Police said Debra was a passenger in the Contessa car.

THEFTS REPORTED

Officials of Crocker School at 649 Bellevue Avenue, Daly City, reported to police last week that a phonograph and a tape recorder had been stolen from the school.

CLOCK STOLEN

Clyde Yaeger of 465 San Diego Avenue, Daly City, reported to police last week that thieves had stolen a wall clock from his garage.

TOOLS STOLEN

Clyde Williams of 156 North Mayfair Avenue, Daly City, reported to police last week that tools had been stolen from his garage.
